Hon John J. Gorman
Office Justice

Dear Sir

You have commiserated some thieves for stealing Mrs Washburn's pocket book on Wednesday last. She would be glad to appear against them if it were practicable for her to do so, but she has been an invalid for years under the physician's care for nervous disease & the excitement of appearing in Court would probably lay her up for the winter - indeed the excitement of the theft & her interview with Officer Ferris upset her for a day or two. I had therefore to ask, much as I regret the necessity of doing so, that she be not called upon to make a complaint. Medical certificates in regard to her case can be furnished.
