I was seated in Ballroom on right hand side as you face the stage. I heard a disturbance from behind me and to my left. Looked and saw a man standing, saying "Get your hands out of my pockets."

I looked back towards the stage. As I turned I saw 2 men firing. I fell to the floor. Someone next to me pulled me to the floor. I got up and went to ~~my daughter~~ Betty x. She was under a table. I didn't see anyone firing because I didn't look back. I was concerned about Betty x.

I do not know whether or not Johnson, Butler and Neyer were in the Hall. I do not know whether or not they were the man I saw standing, or the men I saw firing as I did not see the faces of these men.
