The People
Joseph Sunday } Court of General Sessions. Part I
Monday, November 25, 1884.
Before Recorder Smyth.

Indictment for assault in the first degree
James O'Neill, sworn and examined, testified. Where do you live? I live in Union Hill,
N.J.

What is your business? I am a steward at present on the dock of the Westshore Railroad Co., Piers Nos. 1 and 5.
I go from one dock to the other. Were you on pier No. 1 on the 27th of July last?
Yes. Did you see an affray between Apulli and the defendant Sunday? Yes.
What time of day did this assault occur?
It was about ten minutes past eight o'clock in the morning. What was Apulli doing?
He was assisting me tying up barrels of flour on the dock; we were handling freight and Apulli and two others were there. Sunday was trucking it out of the car on a hand truck;
the work went along all right until about ten minutes past eight o'clock when seemingly without any provocation whatever Sunday dropped the truck and ran over. Apulli was in the act of stooping to lift up the barrel and he struck him in the back. How far away was Apulli when he dropped his truck to run after him? He was about as far as from here to the window. Had there been any conversation before that? No, nothing that I heard. Did you see a Knife in Sunday's hand? Yes, I caught him with a Knife in hand I jumped and caught him as he was about to strike the second time. What did Apulli do when he was struck? He ran away as soon as he could, he ran up the dock. Did you hold on to Sunday? I held Sunday for a few minutes and then I let him go. He threw the Knife between barrels of flour where it was picked up by one of the men afterwards and handed over to the officer. Was that officer Koelsted?<sup>yes</sup> Cross Examined. Sunday did not work for me but for the Railroad Co., he was not under my charge but under the charge of a foreman. I knew the defendant before this morning and knew him for a month previous. I never knew him to have any trouble with any one before that morning. I did not see anything take place between Apulli and the defendant just before he struck him. I did not see him knock him down and kick him. How long were you on the dock that morning? From about ten minutes past seven until the time of the assault, ten minutes past eight; and during that time the defendant was not knocked down or kicked by anybody. I did not notice that his clothes were all full of mud when he was arrested. It is a fact that when he came to the Police Court his clothes were full of mud and he had a jumper, his working shirt on; it was raining in the morning. I have told the jury all I know about it; it happened in a couple of minutes. If there had been any trouble between them it must have been before we went to work. Apulli was working alongside of me all the time. Sunday was going in and out of the car taking the flour out and helping to tie it on the dock; he was using a hand truck trucking the barrels out of the railroad car and I and the complainant (Apulli) were tying them on the dock.

Frank Apulli, sworn and examined. I am a dock laborer and was employed at Pier No. 1, on the 24th of last July at pier No 1, in this city. I was working with the defendant Sunday that day on the dock with him; he (the defendant) assaulted me. I was lifting a barrel of flour and he gave me a blow with a knife on my back. Had you any discussion or trouble with Sunday for an hour before that, from the time you went to work until you were stabbed? Not that day, but we had some words the day before; we had some words, we had a fight before we started work that morning at the dock; it was before seven o'clock. After I was stabbed I went to the Police station and from there they took me to the Hospital. I went first to the Chamber St. Hospital and then to Bellone, where I remained eight days. I was stabbed in the back, and my jumper was cut through. I saw Mr. Skill at the time; I was helping him with the barrels when I was stabbed. Two of my friends helped me to the station house. I was bleeding when I was at the station house. I was taken in an ambulance from the Chamber street Hospital to the Bellone Hospital. Cross Examined. I went to work that morning at seven o'clock. I had trouble with the defendant about a quarter to seven and he stabbed me at half past eight. I did not have a razor in my hand the time I was stabbed. It is not a fact that at the time the defendant cut me with the knife that I had assaulted and knocked him down on the pier. He stabbed me while I was working without saying a word. A jury was withdrawn and the defendant pleaded guilty to assault in the second degree.
