Whereas I did on the 10th day of November cause the arrest of one Charles Cohen on the charge of petty larceny and who on such charge was held by Justice Kelly to await the result of his trial at general sessions in the sum of three hundred dollars bail. Now after careful examination of all the facts and circumstances attending such charge I firmly believe that said Charles Cohen did not intend to commit a crime but absent mindedly left or was about to leave my establishment without paying for the goods which were delivered to him by one of my salesman, therefore I desire to and do ask for leave of this court to withdraw the charge heretofore made against said Cohen

Dear Mr. Nicoll,

I would ask your kind services in the case of Bernard J. Curran indicted for larceny in the 2nd degree. I am certain that he is innocent.
His past record is excellent.
He is now 22 years old.

He was 6 years in the General passed the Civil Service examination he was a letter sorter in the Gen^l P.O. Dublin. After 6 months he resigned at the instance of the Registrar Gen^l who got a position for him at New Science & Art Museum.

Being prevented by typhoid fever from filling this position he came to this country about 2 months ago. He brought a fine testimonial from his clergyman in Dublin as also his references from the places above mentioned. I secured him a place at H. O'Neill & Co's on the strength of his references.

His moral character is irreproachable.
On the Monday night when the offence was supposed to have been committed he paid his landlady and when arrested had about $4 of his own in his pocket.
He admits that he had led to take some drinks after which he remembers nothing until
