New York, June 11, 1885

Hon. Frederick Smyth, Recorder

Dear Sir:

Will you pardon this appeal to your clemency in behalf of young Halley, who has been convicted of crime, and recommended to the mercy of the Court. His mother is specially heart-broken because she thinks he was convicted through her own blunders. For instance, when asked by a juror, if the boy had a right key, in her nervous embarrassment, she answered, "yes," - when upon recalling her reply, though he once had a key, she knows that he has not had one for two years. Then, again, in her sensitiveness that the tenants of the house should not know of his arrest she failed to produce <sup>other</sup> ~~any~~ <sup>which she could have done,</sup> testimony than her own that the boy was at home the hours the crime was committed. She is a strictly candid woman & honestly believes that her boy did not leave her house that night.

I have known the family for years, and while the boy has been perhaps somewhat unruly at times, myself and others cannot think him guilty of intended burglary. I have never heard of his being guilty of theft.

It is my belief that if the boy could be spared the disgrace and loss of self-respect consequent upon sentence to a criminal prison, that he will make a proper citizen.

And could your Honor feel justified in suspending sentence, both his mother and myself will use every endeavor to this end. Or if this is, in your judgment, too great clemency, can you spare the boy a prison disgrace and send him to some Reformatory Institution?

We desire to save him;
and only pray for that decision which will tend best to this end; and thus submit this appeal to your Honor's judgment and clemency.

Your obed<sup>t</sup> servant,
L. P. Cummings.

The People
 Mary Hutchings
 Friday June 12, 1883. Indictment for larceny.
 Emma Hope sworn. I live at 123 West Thirty Second St. and was living there on the 17th of May, on that day I lost diamond ear rings valued at $190 and $65 in cash. There were other things taken, but this is what I missed on that day, it was my property, I put it in my wardrobe between four and five o'clock in the afternoon, she saw me put the money in the satchel, I locked my wardrobe and went down to the kitchen and she went down ahead of me. I was talking to the cook and the prisoner left the kitchen and went up stairs and it might have been ten minutes before I went up stairs. I saw the prisoner running from my room out of the front door into the street I shut the front door and went to my room and saw my wardrobe open. I knew there was something wrong. I picked up my satchel and saw that my money was gone. I missed my ear rings which were in a little velvet case. I left my room and went to the street and saw the prisoner by my gate talking to a colored man. I called her into my room and said, "Give me my money and ear rings."

0300

because they are of great value to me. This money I have saved for my rent and I must have. She said, "I haven't got it." I said, "You have got it or you must have given it to that colored man." She says, "If you think I have got it, I will undress for you." I said, I will have you arrested. She left my house and I did not see her again until the 26th of May. I made a statement at the Station house and they were nine days looking for her before she came back to the house where she lived. She was a domestic in my employ. I did not owe her any wages; she worked for me twelve days. Cross Examined. I let rooms to anybody who comes along and behaves themselves and pays me. I had two servants beside the prisoner and I had a lady who was in bed sick and her husband lived there. Three or four months. When I left my room I did not lock the door. Then I got to the head of the stairs I saw the prisoner running out of my room into the street. She took her clothes off for me to search her but I did not do it. I searched the water closets and searched the barrels in the street. I thought she might possibly have thrown it into the street; she told me where she lived. I sometimes take a glass of beer.

I have business to attend to and am not a woman who drinks. I went round to the Station House as soon as I could and made a charge against her. They sent a detective to the house and he could not find her. I did not see her take the money, but there was no one else in the room. When she got in the street I saw her converse with the colored man, and it was after that she said, "Search me!"

Mary Butchings, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. My birth place is Tottenham S.I. I reside at 306 West Thirty Seventh St. and know Mrs. Hope. I was a servant in her house and was there on the 17th of May. I went on Tuesday morning and rang the bell. A lady came down stairs in her under garments and let me in. She told me to go down stairs and do whatever I saw was to be done, that Miss Emma had been up all night and did not want to be wakened. I washed dishes and did other things till the cook came. Miss Emma had been drunk all Saturday night and Sunday she did not get up. I went up stairs and told her the cook sent me up for something for desert. Miss Emma said to me, "Why cant she make desert and only three boards to cook for? She got up out of bed and put on her wrapper and while she was getting the money I went out of the room. She came down stairs afterwards and sent me out for cream.

 Afterwards she called me into her room and said, "you took my money; take off every piece of your clothes." She tore a waist of my dress and my undergarments. I went out of her room after she searched me. I said, Can I go home?" She said, "I dont care where you go." I helped to search the ash barrel. I sold wine while I was there; she keeps a fast house. I did not talk to a colored man in the street that Sunday. I know nothing about the money and never saw her wear any jewelry except what she had on. I never was in her wardrobe. Mrs. Pope had been on a spree when I first went to her house. I was there five days. After I was there a few hours I knew the character of the house. I told her Saturday I did not like the place and was going to leave.
 Mrs. Polkham sworn. I reside at 225 West 22nd st. and know the prisoner two years. her character is good. I have seen her quite often during that time.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
