of No. 21 Bond Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the 17th day of October 1882

at the City of New York, in the County of New York,

Oscar Lephew (now here) did feloniously and knowingly with the felonious intent to cheat and defraud deponent, falsely represent and pretend to deponent that he was in the employ of William J Lloyd and James O Lloyd and that he had been sent to deponent by said Lloyds to collect from deponent one month rent of her house No 21 Bond St, of Deponent believing said representations to be true gave to said Lephew the sum of one hundred and twenty five dollars.

Deponent has made diligent inquiries of said William J Lloyd and James O Lloyd and deponent has since been informed by said Lloyds that the representations made as to his being in their employ were false as said Lephew is not and never has been in their employ. Wherefore deponent charges said Oscar Lephew with obtaining from her said sum of one hundred and twenty five dollars by means of said false representations by him made to deponent with the felonious intent to cheat and defraud deponent.
