My Dear Sir

I have no desire to prosecute

He has depending on him for support humblly ask your Honor to be as lenient as the Law will permit. I think this is a case, where your Honor

City and County of New York, ss:-

Howard Nelson being duly sworn says:

I am the complainant in the above entitled action; I have known the brother of the defendant for many years and I also know his family and know them to be very respectable and decent people. On the night of this alleged larceny, I had been indulging in drink more than was good for me, and I believe that the defendant had also been engaged in drinking heavily. From what I know of him and his family, I can hardly believe that he had intended to steal my money.
I regard it more as a drinking frolic than as a crime, and, as far as I am able, I desire to withdraw the charge against him; but if this cannot be done, I earnestly ask the Court to extend to him all the clemency that the Court is able to do. I make this affidavit and request voluntarily and without any promise of any consideration or payment of any consideration whatever,; I am actuated in this, merely by a desire that justice may be done.
