of deponent, and from said premises said street the following property, viz.:

One gold Hunting Case watch with gold chain and trinkets attached. Being together and in all of the value of one hundred dollarsthe property of deponent and her husband Daniel Rumbold and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Alice Allen from the fact that at said time said Alice Allen hired from deponent a furnished room - a few minutes before 6 O'clock P.M. on said day deponent had the above described property in her possession and placed it under the feather bed in a room on the 2^d floor of said premises - that immediately after deponent had placed said property under said feather bed - Alice Allen came into said room, and made up said bed - and deponent left said bed room and went into the kitchen, that about

Judge Lawrence,

I ask as a special favor for me, that Mrs. Clark's sentence be made as light as possible. I fear she was driven to take any property by bad treatment from her husband; and as her health is feeble, I do not wish to have her punished severely.

Respectfully Yours.
