In the Matter of

People vs. Margaret Jumer

Witnesses:

After a careful examination of the testimony in this case,

I am of the opinion that the complainant and defendant

are equally culpable.

There are no other witnesses

of the assault except the complainant and defendant

and from the testimony of both it would be impossible to secure a conviction.

The complainant has signed a withdrawal and I feel that the ends of justice

would be best served by a dismissal of the indictment.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

MAGGIE ZUMER.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The reason why I make this withdrawal is, as follows:- The Defendant and myself live in the same house, and on the evening of August 2nd we met in the hallway of the building, and we both scolded each other, and did call each other names. I became somewhat enraged and seized hold of the defendant and threw her down. While doing so she cut me on the head. I was enraged in consequence of the names she called me and did as I have stated, and when I noticed that I was cut, I immediately went to the police and caused her arrest. The wounds were examined, and I was directed to wash them out with a little water. I used no medicine of any kind. Since defendant's arrest my passion has cooled, and I feel that I am as much to blame in the matter as defendant. I make this withdrawal for such reason and no other. I have not received any compensation or article of value for making this withdrawal, neither do I expect any, but do so, simply for the reasons here stated.

Dated New York, August 10th, 1892.
