West St. At what time of night was your attention attracted to him? At two o'clock in the morning.
Where were you at the time your attention was attracted to this man? I was on the other side of the street on West St. on the Central Railroad side opposite Liberty St. I was walking up there, I heard glass break at two o'clock in the morning. Glass break where? Liberty and West Sts. What did you do?
I ran toward the direction of Liberty and West Sts. and I seen two men cross the street and the third man followed them and just ran right around the corner. I arrested the third man, I could not get the other two; they ran, and one said, "Cheese it." Of the two who ran away you heard one of them cry out, "Cheese it?" Yes sir. And then it was you were pursuing them? Yes. I was pursuing them. You arrested this one? I arrested that one, that prisoner at the bar Well, did you go back to the premises? I brought him right back.
What did you find the fact to be in regard to the premises? I found the wire screen torn down and the glass door broken. What were those premises? A liquor and cigar place. Belonging to whom? Henry Blenderman. Did you find the glass broken off the door? Yes sir. What did the prisoner say, if anything? He said nothing. He did not say anything? No. You took him to the station house? Yes sir. Cross Examined. How far from the broken glass did you find the prisoner? About forty feet. Near which street? On West and Liberty Sts. Where was the store located, between Liberty and where? Liberty and West, the door was on Liberty St, that is the side door. What was he doing when you first saw him? He was coming after the other two. Walking along? Yes sir. No sir; there was not one in the street, only these three. And one of the two who was running cried, "cheese it?" Yes sir.
