William R. Hare

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The defendant had been in my employ for over two years, and had had charge of various sums of money for which he always accounted. This was the first time he ever retained any money, and I believe his act was the result of hard drinking. I know Hare's family and they are respectable people. If the court discharges the prisoner I will take him back to my employment, feeling satisfied that he has been sufficiently punished already.

The evidence on the trial of Maggie Harris, established not only her guilt, but the other fact that there is not a particle of proof implicating the Co. Defendant Herbert Harris. Beyond the fact of his being in the house where the larceny was committed (though not in the room where it was committed) there is not the least fact to even justify the finding of the indictment. Much less to justify a conviction. I respectfully advise that the indictment as to Herbert Harris be dismissed.

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 Maggie Harris } Before Judge Goldersleeve. March 29. 1884.
 Jointly indicted with Herbert Harris for grand larceny in the second degree. William E. Murphy sworn I am a seaman; on the 27th of last month I saw the prisoners between five and six o'clock in the afternoon at 194 Green St. I was passing through Green St. Maggie was sitting at a window and she made signals to me I went up stairs and went in the room and sat down; there was a room each side and there was no window in her room. I met her at the head of the stairs; she asked me if I was not going to treat? I said I did not want anything myself, but I gave her money and she sent somebody out for a pint of beer. Her room was dark and dismal. There was no chair but a large trunk was in the corner back of the door; there were hooks on the door; there was a bed in the room and I sat on the bed. I had an overcoat and an under coat. I hung my overcoat on the hook and threw my coat on the trunk behind the door. I had in the coat $100 in gold consisting of three $20 gold pieces and five $10's and $1 in the hip pocket of my pantaloons; the money was in a little buckskin bag.

0649

with a string tied round it and put in a handkerchief carelessly in my pocket. From where I sat on the bed I could not see the trunk, it was too dark; when the door is shut you can see nothing. The woman who brought in the beer knocked at the door and Maffie Harris opened it. I could not swear whether she locked the door or not afterwards. I probably sat 10 or 15 minutes on the bed talking. I did not feel right, it was too warm. I said, "I guess I will be going." I got up, took my coat and I felt for my money and it was gone. I put my hand in to feel for the package when I took my coat off and it was there. When I discovered my money was gone I asked for a light; she said she had not any match. "I must have one, I lost something." She said, "I guess you have not lost anything." I went out for a match and opened the door and Herbert Harris was near the door. The woman who brought the beer was there. I said, "I will have you arrested if you don't give up what you have got." I ran down stairs and met Officer Van Orden at the foot of the stairs. He came up stairs and not finding Maffie in the room where we were, he burst open the door of another room and found her in bed. Herbert Harris told the officer he was Maggie's husband. We found ~~one~~ one dollar bill between the mattress. Cross Examined. I was round the city that day. I did not agree to give the defendant a dollar. I did not give her any money. John Van Norden sworn. I am an officer of the 15th precinct. I went to the premises 194 Green St. on the 27th of Feb. on the complaint of Murphy; he called me in the hallway. I went to the room where he said he had been with the woman. It is a small middle room. There is a front and back room. There is a hallway leading through the length of the house; there is a window in the front that admitted light through the hallway. In the middle room there is no window; it is a little bit of a room, no bigger than this desk. Murphy complained that Maggie Harris stole $1.02 from him; we searched the room and could find no money and coming out I met Herbert Harris, who said that he lived at 91 Crosby St. and Maggie was his wife. There was a one dollar bill found in another room by officer Keenan. We took the prisoners to the Station house. We searched all around for sliding doors. I did not think it was a "house" house; we looked all around for a partition.

0650

 George Harris room and examined in her own behalf. I live at 91 Gough St. I did not find any money from the compartment and did not converse with anybody before my. I was sitting at the window with a woman; the compartment came along and he was drunk at the time; he told me if I would go with him he would give me a dollar and he gave me the dollar. I put the dollar under the bed.
 Cross examined. He night the best was arrested he was frightened and gave the same name as John; his name is Herbert Denny; he is then a great deal with me at 91 Gough St.
 Officer Van Orden recalled. Then I was called in the hallway by the compartment he was perfectly sober; he might have been drinking, but he had full possession of all his faculties. There have been on the police 13 years. This is a true story name and is let out for furnished name; there might be eight or nine names. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The defendant was remanded for sentence.

for the City of N.Y.

N.Y. Harbor
Feb 9th 84

Sir.

I received a Subpoena from your office to appear at the Court of Sessions on Monday as Comptroller in the case of Lucian V. Harrison

Now I understand I cannot be taken away from a military post without serving a Subpoena on my commanding officer.

I am at present confined to hospital from injuries received at the hands of Harrison now I am determined to punish the accused as he had no reason to me whatever. Please Sir to advise my case (provided I am not there). I have not yet advised any of my superior officers in the matter. Your old servant
John D. Sullivan

I only now found out General Abbott is not home but the next officer in rank takes his place he is Capt. J. H. Willard my own Company Commander.
