($242.00)

the property of Deponent's brother Edward Carleton and in deponent's care and custody.

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Annie Marry (nowhere) from the fact that at the hour of 10 O'clock on said date deponent went out leaving the sum of two hundred and forty seven dollars in the pocket of a dress which was hanging in the closet in deponent's bed room in said premises the door of said closet being locked, and when deponent

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

Laurence Morton

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

Since the defendant and I have upon inquiry found out that the defendant has always borne a most estimable character for peace and quietude, and has always been of a sober and industrious habit at the time of this assault. The defendant's mind was in a great degree impaired by illness and was not intentional.

deposes and says, that the premises No. 1431-1st Avenue, 19th Ward in the City and County aforesaid the said being a Store for the deposit and sale of Meat poultry &c and which was occupied by deponent as a Store and in which there was at the time a human being, ~~by name~~ panlight over the door leading from the Street into said Store with intent to commit a larceny therein on the 17th day of December 1887 in the Night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

A Number of Turkey chickens

Geese and ducks about eight in all, and collectively of the value of about Seventy dollars the property of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

Matthew McAuliffe now present for the reasons following, to wit: That at about Four O'clock

A.M. on said day deponent was awakened by Officer Alfred Anderson 25th Precinct who informed deponent that about an hour before he saw the defendant standing about thirty feet from deponent's Store and had a bag in his possession which the Officer saw him throw upon the ground and then run away. That the Officer Further informed deponent that the defendant was pursued and arrested by said Officer and that afterwards upon opening the bag he the Officer found a number of Turkey geese, ducks, and chickens in the bag. That deponent then discovered that a number of poultry had been stolen from his store, and identified the fowls found in the bag as his property.

That deponent subsequently discovered that the store was entered through the parlour, and that the person who so entered had unlocked the door from the inside when he had stolen the property and wanted to reach the street.

That deponent reached that conclusion because he locked the door on the inside when he left the store & the key was still in the lock but the door was open.

~~information not being~~ or about 4th day of May 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of Thomas E. Collins, of Columbus, Ohio of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

Three hundred and forty five dollars and seventy four cents. Lawful money of the United States

the property of said Thomas E. Collins

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Bernard F. McLaughlin from the fact that by a Decree of the Surrogate's Court, of the County of New York duly made and entered on or about the 15th day of April 1887 in the Matter of the Judicial Settlement of the account of Elizabeth Courtney as Administratrix of Nicholas Courtney, deceased, it was decreed that said Administratrix pay to said Thomas E. Collins as one of the next of kin of said Nicholas Courtney, deceased, the sum of Three hundred and forty five dollars and seventy four cents; that on or about the 28th day of April 1887, said Thomas E. Collins executed and delivered to said Bernard F. McLaughlin a power of attorney, in terms authorizing and empowering said Bernard F.

McLaughlin to collect and receive the share, part or portion of said Thomas E. Collins, of the Estate of which Nicholas Courtney, late of the City of New York, died seized, under a Decree of the Surrogate of the County of New York bearing date the fifteenth day of April 1887 that under and by virtue of said power of attorney, said Bernard F. McCall collected and received of and from said Elizabeth Courtney, Administratrix of the estate of said Nicholas Courtney deceased, as aforesaid, for said Thomas E. Collins, said sum of Three hundred and forty five dollars and seventy four cents - the amount directed by said Decree to be paid to said Thomas E. Collins for his share of said Estate; which sum the said Bernard F. McCall has ever since retained and appropriated to his own use.

That said Bernard F. McCall admitted to deponent that he had taken said sum of money Wherefore deponent charges said Bernard F. McCall with having feloniously taken, stolen and carried away the property as above described, and prays that said Bernard F. McCall may be arrested and dealt with according to law -

My dear sir:

My matter ~~is~~ was on the Calendar yesterday and was adjourned to next Tuesday, the 27th inst. I did not know it was on until the morning. I wish you would favor me again by seeing Senator Fitzgerald and see what can be done to have the matter ruled, as there is no one to push the matter on the other side, and the attorney, Mr. Hilton, regrets that he was so hasty in going so far. I am sorry to annoy you so much, but I am so worried about it that I am unable to attend to my business.
And I want to prevent the disgrace of having it come on the Calendar

Bernard F. McCahill

City and County of New York

Bernard F. McCahill
being sworn, says that he is the defendant above named; that he is the subject of the charge in the indictment found against him receiving money from the collection of certain moneys by defendant for one Thomas E. Collins of this County; that the amount and interest collected was paid by defendant to Arthur R. Hutton Esq., attorney for said Collins Jan'y 3, 1888 as appears by the receipt therefor annexed, but erroneously dated 1887, instead of 1888, that defendant is innocent of any crime in collecting or detaining said money for and from said Collins. That the payment of the said money mentioned in said receipt, was made on the day of the return of said indictment to defendant, requiring him to plead thereto.
That defendant has several times been called for trial, but no prosecution has been had.
He therefore asks that said indictment be dismissed and his name discharged.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Bernard E. McCall

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse Bernard E. McCall of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY, in the Second degree, committed as follows:

The said Bernard E. McCall, late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Fourth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, being then and there the clerk and servant of Thomas E. Collins, and as such clerk and servant then and there having in his possession, custody and control certain moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Thomas E. Collins, the true owner thereof, to wit: the sum of Three hundred and forty five dollars in money, lawful money of the United States, and of the value of Three hundred and forty five dollars, the said Bernard E. McCall, afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, did feloniously appropriate the said sum of money to his own use, with intent to deprive and defraud the said

Thomas E. Collins, of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof; and the same moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Thomas E. Collins, did then and there and thereby feloniously steal, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

William W. Meeteer being duly sworn, says, that he resides at number 1833 Bathgate Avenue, Street, in the City of New York, County of New York and State of New York, is 48 years of age, and an expert appointed by HON. JOSIAH K. BROWN, the New York State Dairy Commissioner; that, at the times hereinafter mentioned, one James Mc Ball was the keeper and proprietor, of a restaurant a place of public entertainment, and had his said restaurant in a room in number 189 South Street, in the City of New York, County of New York, within this State, and occupied and controlled such room and was in charge of such restaurant; that on the 4th day of October, 1887, deponent went to such James Mc Ball's said restaurant and ordered a luncheon of bread butter and tea; and the said James Mc Ball, in response thereto in his said restaurant then and there served to deponent as food for deponent and as a part of the said luncheon so ordered by deponent, who was then a guest and customer of said James Mc Ball in his said restaurant, a substance in imitation and semblance of natural butter, produced from pure unadulterated milk or cream of the same, which had been made out of some animal fat or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated milk or cream from the same and by mixing, compounding with and adding to milk, cream or butter such animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from milk or cream, so as to produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural butter and which had been made in violation of the provisions of Section 7 of Chapter 183 of the Laws of 1885, as amended by Chapter 577 of the Laws of 1886; that a more particular description of such manufactured substance, the ingredients thereof and the amount of the same are unknown to deponent and cannot be stated herein for that reason; that the same was so served by said James Mc Ball in the ordinary course of his said business; and said James Mc Ball asked, and deponent then and there paid 10 cents for such luncheon to the employee of said Mc Ball then receiving the cash for said

Mc Ball and said employee of his a sample thereof for analysis in the manner required by law; and thereafter, on October 4th, 1887, deponent delivered such sample so taken by him as stated, to one Charles M. Stillwell who was and is known to deponent to have then been, and who since has been and is now, a chemist, practicing as such at number 55 Fulton Street, in the City of New York County of New York, within this State, and deponent caused the said substance to be analyzed by such chemist; that the certificate of such analysis thereof, made by said chemist, is hereto annexed.

Deponent charges that the said James Mc Ball against the peace and dignity of the People of the State of New York, and the statutes in such case made and provided, wrongfully and unlawfully so served such manufactured substance and caused, procured and suffered the same to be so served to deponent, and was thereby guilty of a misdemeanor; and deponent, therefore, asks for a warrant against the said James Mc Ball for violation by him of Section 27 of Chapter 183 of the Laws of 1885, as added thereto by Chapter 583 of the Laws of 1887, and that he may be dealt with as the law directs.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

against

James McRae

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of a Misdemeanor committed as follows :

The said James McRae, late of the Fourth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Fourth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, being the manager and proprietor of a certain restaurant there situate, and came to be used and named did therein unlawfully keep, use and serve to one William W. Meehan then being a guest, patron, and customer of the said James McRae at said restaurant, a quantity of a certain article, substance and compound in imitation and semblance of natural butter produced from pure, unadulterated milk, or cream of the same, the said article, substance and compound so sold as aforesaid, being rendered, manufactured and produced out of divers animal fats and oils not produced from unadulterated milk, or cream from the same, the said article substance and compound not having been manufactured prior to, and not being in process of manufacture, on the sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven, (a more particular description of which said article, substance and compound, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

RANDOLPH B. MARTINE,

District Attorney.
