; Before Hon. James
; Fitzgerald and a
; Jury.

Indictment filed September 16th. 1890
Indicted for robbery in the second degree.

New York, September 19th, 1890.

Appearances. For the people, Assistant District Attorney Edward Grosse.

For the defendant, C. Kinsley.

PHILLIP HOFFMAN, a witness for the people, sworn testified;-----

I am a blacksmith and reside in Greenpoint, I was in the city of New York on the 7th of September this year between nine and half-past nine o'clock. I was on my way to the ferry over to Greenpoint at 23rd st. I was walking through 1st av. between 23rd and 24th streets when I met this defendant. I asked him where the 23rd street ferry was. He hesitated and said "I will tell you, I will tell you". He went on that way hesitating and at the same time I felt that he was fumbling with his hand around my pocket. I felt his hand around my pocket and I hit it.
I told him he hadn't any right to put his hand in my pocket.

After I hit his hand he hit me in the back , in the face and ran w away. When he had gone I found that he had ~~taken~~ taken my watch. I had a pocket book in my pocket, at the time containing three dollars in money, and he took my watch and pocket book. Then he ran away. I grabbed the pocket book out of his hand again. The watch was valued at about $5.00. It was attached to my vest by a chain. When I caught him the street again afterwards he said he would give me the watch. I ran after him, and while I was running about 6 or 7 blocks a policeman caught him. I didn't lose sight of him during the time I was in pursuit of him. The pocket book which he grabbed from my hand contained $1.50.

Cross-examination.

Q. What day of the week was this? A. Sunday at about 9 o'clock.

Q. What time did you leave Greenpoint that night?

A. Myself and my wife left Greenpoint at about 2 o'clock to attend a picnic of a club in Harlem. The picnic was held in a park at 164th st. . I remained at the picnic until about 8 o'clock. I drank several glasses of lager while there but wasn't intoxicated. I was at that picnic about 4 hours and drank during that time about ten glasses of beer.

Q. How did you go downtown? A. I came down on the Elevated road and got off at the 23rd st. Station. I let my wife and children walk to the ferry and I went through first avenue to this lumber yard to attend to a call of nature. For the moment I didn't know exactly where I was and I asked this defendant to show me the way to the 23rd st. ferry. I cross that ferry every day in going to and from my business here in the city.

Q. How many blocks did you run after the defendant. ?

A. One block and then he jumped on a car, and afterwards got off. He offered my watch back if I would let him go.

Q. Did you sign a complaint on the following day?

A. I dont know exactly when I signed the complaint.

Q. You don't know with which hand he was taking the watch from your pocket? A. No sir. We were very close to each other at the time. I was asking him the way to the ferry. I couldn't say when he took my pocket book.

Q. You stated in your examination in the police court that the watch and money was valued at $17.00, and that this occurred at half-past 11 o'clock. It is true?

A. It is possible that I made have made a mistake in time when I was at the police station.

Q. Was there an interpreter in the police court?

A. No sir there wasn't. I dont understand the English language perfectly.

DELAFIELD RUCH, a witness for the people, sworn testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 18th precinct. I arrested this defendant on Sunday evening at half-past 11 o'clock. I was patrolling my post on 23rd street, from second av. to the East River. When I came on 2nd av.

about the middle of the block I met a citizen who told me something. I jumped on a car, caught the prisoner and said to him, "Where is that watch?" and he said, "I don't know anything about any watch". I said you will have to come with me and I brought him back to about the middle of the block when I met the complainant coming towards me. The complainant had the watch in his hand and the chain was dangling. He looked at the prisoner and said that was the man that had taken the watch and afterwards handed it back to him. The complainant appeared to be a little excited. He was sober. He was positive in his identification of this man as the man who had taken the watch from him.

Cross-examination.

Q. You passed by the defendant when you were going towards the complainant? A. He passed by me and I stopped him.

Q. That is the complainant? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you pass the defendant before you got to the complainant? A. Yes sir.

Q. You say it was 11.30 when you made the arrest on that night? A. Yes sir.

Q. And you saw the complainant was sober? A. Yes sir.

Q. You went directly to the Station house?

A. Yes sir, I went to the station house.

Q. Did he say anything at the Station house about the pocket book? A. Yes sir.

Q. You noticed there that the pin in his necktie was pulled out?

0054

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,
VERSUSBernard Grady.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendant has borne a good character up to the time of this attempted assault.

He was laboring in a state of excitement when he drew a knife from his pocket, I do not now believe that he intended to stab me, for the defendant was too drunk to know what he was doing. Defendant has a family depending on him for support and I respectfully ask permission to withdraw the complaint.

My dear friend

You will be doing me a great favor and a great kindness to a highly respectable family whom I have known intimately and in my professional capacity for fifteen or twenty years, if you will, as far as possible, be lenient with Bernard Gady who is under indictment for attempted assault &c, in a liquor store, while under the influence of liquor. Barney is not a vicious man, by any means, and he has been steadily at work with Mr. Prior of Harlem for several years which fact alone speaks well for his uniform steadiness and good conduct, to both of which I can freely and truthfully testify.

I hope, therefore, you will feel justified in releasing him from the penalty of his offence which was unpremeditated and perhaps provoked by previous assault.

With kind regards and best wishes, I am dear Sir,

Yours ever faithfully

him to be a quiet,

for whose sake I beg your clemency.

Court of General Sessions. Part I
 Before Recorder Smyth. Sept. 25. 1890.
 Indictment for grand larceny in second degree.
 Frederick Turot, sworn and examined.
 I am a cook. I recollect the 17th of September of this year. I met the defendant on that day in a bar room at about seven o'clock in the evening. I don't know the name of the street and do not know the number. I had a conversation with her. I paid for a glass of beer. I came from Coney Island on Monday. I was employed there; there was no more work in Coney Island. Then I left.
 The bar room with this woman I went to a store and bought something, and then she took me to a room, I think it is 159.
 Bleeker St. one flight up. I think it was a hotel; the servant girl showed me a room and I locked the door. I had in a pocket book in my pantaloons pocket ^{forty five} ~~fifty~~ dollars and about two dollars in change. I also had a silver watch for which I paid ten dollars and one dollar for the chain. Then I went into the room. I wrapped up the forty five dollars in a ^{corner of the} bed sheet. I had a scarf pin.
 I left two dollars in my pocket book; the watch I left in my pocket. I undressed and put my clothing on the chair and my watch was in my vest pocket. I undressed and went to bed about eleven o'clock. I had ~~no~~ intercourse with the woman and I did not go to sleep immediately afterwards, but when she left I fell asleep. I awakened in the morning at two o'clock. I did not hear her when she came in, but when I woke up again she was there I said, "O, you are here again." Then she said, "I will go out again." I said, "No, you will not go out till I see if I have my money." I looked for the money: there was ~~no money~~. Then about five minutes later I looked for my watch and there was no watch. I did not see the scarf pin there. I said, "I will not let you out of this room till tomorrow morning till I have these things back." Then the owner of the place, the landlady, came up and they called for a policeman and he came. Did you see your watch again? I searched her, she had the watch in her bosom. I took the watch and kept it. The policeman came. I made the complaint and he took her off to the station house. I was locked up in the house of detention. If the money was found I did not see it.

Cross Examined. I am not married and never was. I live at 189 Wooster St. I never saw the money after I tied it up in the bed sheet.

William Whispell sworn. I am an officer of police and arrested the defendant on the early morning of the 17th of Sept. I was passing the hotel and the proprietor came out and called me in; the hotel is 159 Bleeker St. I went up stairs one flight and this man and woman were in the room arguing about some money that he had lost and his watch. I asked him what the trouble was and how much money was lost? He said forty five dollars and a watch and chain. I asked him how he lost it and where he put it, and he told me that he tied it up in a sheet at the head of the bed, and she was the only party in the room with him, and he found the watch in the bosom of the dress inside her corset. I asked her why she took the watch? She said she done it in fooling. I asked her where his money was, and she said she did not know anything about it, that she had not taken it. She made no further statement, and there was nothing ^{else} said in her presence. The complainant was sober. I went to the station house and made this complaint and was then committed as a witness.

Maggie Freeman sworn. I went to the hotel with the Merchantman. I did not take any money from him. I did not see him tie up any money in the sheet. He did not pay me. I did as I agreed with him. I know nothing about the stealing of his money.
 I left the room and left him in bed; he got up and shut the door after me, telling the hotel lady that she should let me down. I came right back again and he accused me of stealing the money. He searched me first and then he called the hotel lady and she searched me and seven cents was found on me. I work in a lace factory when I work. Since a year ago I have been in the town. I have been in the Island once for being drunk and disorderly but was never sent there for stealing. I did not see the man's watch. He asked me to come back and I did so at four o'clock in the morning. I was away half an hour. I went to a liquor store corner of Thompson and Bleeker sts. He said he would pay me in the morning, and I went back to get a sleep.
 The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

The People	:	Before
vs.	:	Hon. R. B. Martine
James Guion.	:	and a Jury.

Tried Sept. 23 & 24, 1890.

Indictment filed September 15th, 1890.

Indicted for burglary in the second degree.

APPEARANCES.

Assistant District Attorney Goff, for the People.

R. J. Haire, Esq., for the Defense.

J O H N T. L Y N C H, the complainant, testified that he was a Deputy Sheriff, and had been for six years. He was engaged officially in conducting prisoners to and from the Courts of the City of New York, and also to the State Prison after sentence. He lived at 434 West 58th Street. In July, 1890, he lived at 805 Ninth Avenue. On July 23rd, 1890, he missed a quantity of clothing, including an overcoat, two suits of clothes, five pairs of trousers, four pillows, two sheets, a lady's wrap, a dress, a watch, chain, a silver medal and several smaller articles of clothing, valued at about $300. The clothing was taken from a wardrobe in the front room of his, the complainant's, apartment, on the third floor. The watch and chain were attached to his vest, which was hanging in the adjoining bedroom. At about half past one o'clock on the afternoon of July 23rd, he, the complainant, and his wife left the apartment, locking all of the doors behind them. His wife went on an excursion and he, the complainant, went to work. He returned to his flat after dinner and missed the clothing. When he returned to the flat, he found all of the doors locked, and got in with his brother-in-law's key, his wife having the key with her. About a week after the property was missed, he saw his black suit of clothes and his medals in the police station. Later he saw another suit of clothes, his wife's wrap and dress, another medal and his watch and chain. He identified all of these articles, in the presence of Officer Carey, the detective of the precinct.

OFFICER JOHN CAREY testified that he was the Ward Detective of the 16th Precinct, and had been upon the police force about 10 years. Guion, the defendant, was arrested by another officer, by his, the witness' direction, on the night of July 30th. He, the witness, received information at 146 McDougal Street, which led him to send officer Clem, of the 15th Precinct, to arrest the defendant. He searched the defendant and found seven pawn tickets in his possession. He, the witness, asked the defendant what he was doing with the pawn tickets and the defendant said, "They are mine. They are for my clothes." He, the witness, marked the tickets that he took from the defendant with the defendant's name on the back of them. He presented one of the tickets at Levy's pawn shop and got a suit of clothes and took it to the 16th Precinct Station House. The complainant identified the suit. He, the witness, found in the possession of Fisher, the co-defendant, a medal which the complainant identified. He found the medal in Fisher's room. He also found there a pawn ticket representing a suit of clothes pawned at 402 Canal Street. The complainant identified this suit of clothes also. The defendant was arrested at 136 McDougal Street.

Under cross-examination the witness testified that he found 50 or 60 pawn tickets in the defendant Fisher's rooms at 146 McDougal Street. He found also a lot of pawn tickets in the defendant's room, at 136 McDougal Street, several days after his arrest. But he did not mix these tickets up, keeping marked and separate those which he found in the actual possession of the defendant.

OFFICER PATRICK LAVIN, of the 16th Precinct, testified that he arrested the defendant Guion, and the co-defendant, Allard, in a room at 136 McDougal Street. Allard wanted to know what he was arrested for. He, the witness, said that Allard ought to know -- that his friend, Fisher, was arrested, and he ought to know what he, Allard, was arrested for. The defendants were taken to 146 McDougal Street and searched. The room in which he arrested the defendant was Allard's room, and Allard lived there with a woman supposed to be his wife.

JAMES GUION, the defendant, testified that he was 40 years of age, and was a waiter. On the 23rd of July, 1890, he came down from Blackwell's Island and went to the restaurant at 150 Bleecker Street, where he had been employed for about three years. He was sent to Blackwell's Island for selling cigars and not turning over the proceeds to the owner of the cigars. He had been on the island three months. He was arrested in Allard's room. He did not live there. He had known Allard for three or four years. He had been in that room about 10 minutes. He had just gone in there to pay a short call. He, the defendant, had nothing to do with the burglary at Mr. Lynch's apartment. On the day on which he was arrested, July 30th, Allard asked him to pawn a dress for him. He, the defendant, did not know that the dress was stolen. That was the only ticket that was found upon him when he was searched. Officer Carey was mistaken when he said that he had found seven tickets in his possession.

Under cross-examination the defendant testified that he did not know that Fisher and his wife and Allard were professional thieves. The dress was wrapped up when Allard gave it to him to pawn. He was born in Montreal, Canada.
