late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ninth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty eight, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one

Louis McCord

and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said

Jacob Hubert
of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure, and suffer and permit, to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

STATE OF NEW YORK, CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK,

Police Court, 5th District.

John Andreas of No. 54 West End Avenue Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 18th day of April 1890 at the City of New York, in the County of New York,

Edmund Kynne, James Kearney, Joseph Hogan and Edmund Morrissey fall nor here, did willfully and maliciously break and destroy three large panes of French plate glass, in the windows of deponent's store at the above address, of the value of Two hundred and twenty five Dollars, the property of John Puck, by then and there striking said panes of glass with large rocks, which each of them, the said defendants, then and there threw from their
