Cross Examination of Officer James A. Byrne

Q. Was it the person who escaped whom you saw at the door of the saloon?
A. He with others. I was about half a block away on the same side of the street. The store was nearer to 35 than 36th streets, between the two. I stood there about 25 minutes. I could not say from the distance who of the men tried the door. ~~I saw John Regan~~
I could not tell whether Regan ran or walked away from the door; he was arrested by the other officer. I do not know Regan. I never saw Reilly before that night.

Q. From where you stood could you see any of these men open the door?
A. No. I concluded that they were there for that purpose. I cannot swear that I saw any of them put their hands on that door, or that any of them had their hands there.

A. No - not make afterwards. I cannot say what marks were there before - whether there were or not. When I examined the door I saw marks.
I can't say whether the marks were there prior to the time I saw the young

Q. Will you swear that Regan ran away

A. He was arrested walking. I cannot

Q. Do you know who threw the jimmy

A. I believe I do. It was one of these did not see what was thrown. I
