Part 2 - Nov. 18, 1890
Both discharged on their own recognizance, on order
of District Attorney.

I have made a careful examination of the within case. The complainant desires to withdraw his complaint. I am informed by Officer Wade that the defendants bear an excellent character with the police in that precinct. They are hardworking, honest men. The case was taken in the daytime without any effort at concealment and the story they tell (see affidavits filed herewith) is of such a nature as to raise a reasonable doubt in any mind of their guilt, their good character being considered. I respectfully recommend that they be discharged upon their own recognizance.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

VERSUS

Edward King & Co.
James Kelly.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. As complainant in the above case, I ask that no indictment be found and that the complaint be dismissed as against the above-named defendants. My reason for asking a dismissal of the complaint is that I have my doubts as to their guilt, the property having been in an open lot, the defendants may have come into its possession in the way that they have explained.

M., drove down to Houston Street and Avenue A, we then started to work up-town, Kelly on the wagon and me on the sidealk, with a bag, we took alternate streets between Avenue A and 1st Avenue and worked up-town that way until in 23rd Street I had a call to buy two iron bedsteads and 15 pounds of rags. Kelly was to go through 24th Street, I was to meet him corner 1st Avenue; I went and met him to come around with the wagon and get this stuff. When I met him he had the iron in question on his wagon and told me he had bought it from a man who had it in a vacant lot and hailed him to buy it at the corner of Avenue A and 24th Street. I had nothing to do with the purchase or loading of the iron and knew nothing about it until I saw it on the wagon. This was about 1.30 P. M. OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Frank Kluboky

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Frank Kluboky
of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Frank Kluboky

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty sixth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of one Joseph Dosta in the Peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and him the said Joseph Dosta with a certain knife which the said Frank Kluboky in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, then and there wilfully and feloniously did strike, beat, cut, stab and wound, with intent him the said Joseph Dosta thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said Frank Kluboky of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Frank Kluboky

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said Joseph Dosta in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and him the said

with a certain knife

which the said Frank Kluboky in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a weapon and an instrument likely to produce grievous bodily harm, then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, cut, stab and wound, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

John R. Galloway

THIRD COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said
late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the said in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and
the said
with a certain

which the said
in right hand then and there had and held, in and upon the
of the said

then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, stab, cut, bruise and wound, and did then and there and by the means aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully and wrongfully inflict grievous bodily harm upon the said against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Complaint sent to the Prothonotary
of Special Sessions,

Part III, Dec. 12, 1892.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

against

Marie Knecht

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Marie Knecht

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

(Sec. 502, Penal Code.)

The said

Marie Knecht

late of the 15th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said

on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Marie Knecht

(Section 383, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the fourth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment, further accuse the said

Marie Knecht

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said

Marie Knecht

(Section 322 Penal Code.)

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the fourth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in her said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
