Lace is Labeys
Italian cloth is Herman Bernstein

Berubinin, Marcus A. Robinson and Jerome Bernstein doing business at 353 Broadway under the title of Herman Berubinin & Co. Inc. and that said deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Marcus Raymond,

Henry Hart and August Hartel (now here), for the reason that on the 16th day of March at or about two and half o'clock p.m. deponent was in the act of conveying said truck from the Steamer ^{City of Berlin} the aforementioned property that, whilst passing through Vestry street deponent was hailed by an unknown person who asked deponent to carry a package for him to premises N^o 473 Broadway; that deponent consented to do so and stopped his horse and truck containing the above mentioned property in front of the aforesaid premises. And in company with the said unknown person left his truck, and with the package of the said unknown person mounted the stairway through the weather door. that deponent evidently perceived that a padlock. Deponent made his escape by the back doorway and found that his truck horse and the boxes containing the goods aforementioned had been taken and stolen.

Deponent is informed by Officers Hickey and Maloney of the Central Office that they arrested the accused on the 17th day of March 1881. That they ^{Marcus Raymond and Henry Hart} the accused, were then and there in the act of making motions as if directing the driver of a wagon upon which were being conveyed a part of the contents of the boxes herein above mentioned and identified subsequently as the property of Messrs Lakey & DePort and ^{Horward} Berubennin Son & Co. That August Hartrod was the driver of said wagon and that Marcus Raymond and Henry Hart were at the time making signs and directing the movements of the said August Hartrod.

Office Police being duly sworn deposes and says that aided by Officer Maloney ^{of the Central Office called} he arrested Marcus Raymond, Henry Hart and August Hartrod on the 17th inst at or about three o'clock in Woster & Houston streets.
That the said Marcus Raymond and Henry Hart were then and there in the act of directing the movements of August Hartrod who was driving a horse attached to a wagon upon which was being conveyed a part of the property herein charged as taken and stolen from the complainant Michael Sheedy and identified as the property of Lakey & DePort and Horward Berubennin Son & Co. in charge of the accused August Hartrod claimed that he had been employed by Marcus Raymond and Henry Hart to convey the aforesaid property from the corner of

Clerk "of the District Attorney"
Dear Sir.

In relation to a subpoena commanding Cynthia Watson to appear against J. J. Rosenberg before the Grand Jury, would state, that upon Wednesday last, she left Greenpoint to go to Albany & from there to slowly return to her home.
She came to New York accompanied by her husband for the purpose of seeking medical aid, and while here at my house were looked upon as invalids. However she was unfortunate enough to have her pocket picked and at the request of the Detective immediately went with him and signed papers entirely ignorant of their contents and that through the transaction she would be necessitated to prolong her stay "as that 10 19

Would have been impossible owing to her critical condition "Trusting this will prove satisfactory. As I understand the only evidence she had to offer " was only to identify the pocket book found upon the party arrested, she could not state and recognize the party that stole it if such was the case.

Yours Respectfully,
