Yes Sir.

Have you examined him

When? Yes Sir.

He was admitted to the Hospital Nov 18/87
 I examined him then.

What part of his person did you examine

The penis

After a careful examination what did you find?

I gave him a series of examination; the penis was inflamed and sore with two or three small ulcerations.

Q What would you say caused it?

A It was caused by some contact with a body in a diseased state, I should say penetration.

Q Has he got a disease?
A He is in a condition, which indicates that he has a venereal disease, caused by penetration or contact.

Q Would either bring on that?

A It could, that would not be the probable cause because the inflam-mation extended into the rectum, that would show penetration.

Q Could that disease develop in any other way except by contact with a person having the disease?

A The disease itself could, if he had it before, and came in contact with a person after; it must have been the contact with a diseased person.

Q What kind of treatment are you giving him?

A

We are treating him for venereal disease

What particular form?

For a chancreoidal condition

Q

What do you call that?

Treating for a chancreoid, caused by contact with a venereal sore

What I want to get at,
is the particular form of venereal disease indicated by the chancreoid?

It differs from gonorrea as it is of an anorectal nature.

Could that be caused by contact with a person who was not diseased?

No Sir, without contact with disease he could not have that sickness

Q

How long would it take to cure him?

I cannot answer

Could it be entirely eradicated in one month

He inserted his penis into my rectum.
After it was over he said, "Don't say anything to your brother-in-law or to your sister; if you say it and I meet you in the street I will kill you." This happened between ten and eleven o'clock at night. In the morning I got up and dressed myself and six days afterward I went to the doctor. I first told my brother-in-law and sister two days afterward and then went to an Italian doctor and from there I went to the Charity hospital on Blackwell's Island. After I had done undressing the defendant put me with my face on the lounge and then he did it there on the lounge I have been in this country three years. The defendant was not living in the house at the time; he only slept there that night; he came there on a visit; we have two rooms; my brother in law and sister slept in one room and there is a door connecting the other room My brother in law and sister were not home when this happened, I think they returned about three o'clock. The defendant squeezed my throat, choked me. I felt his penis in my rectum, a big one. A big white emission up your back? Yes sir. It hurt me when he put it in.

Cross Examined. There is in this place a barber's shop and two rooms behind. When my brother in law left he took the keys with him and locked the doors and locked us in.
That night we were eating and drinking and playing cards. My brother did not say who he was going out to see. I never saw the defendant in the store before. When I went to the Police Court to make a complaint against the defendant I swore that this thing occurred in the street on a cart. I said so in order that my brother in law should not know it.
The defendant never did this thing before or after that night. The defendant left the house

The next morning at 9 o'clock I did not consent to the act, he held me by force. Seven or eight days after this act I made complaint to the police. I did not have the courage, I did not know where the defendant was, I told my brother-in-law two days after. Then I went to the Italian doctor. I told him what the defendant had done to me. I went to school in Italy but not here. I have worked for my brother-in-law a couple of years. To Mr. Rudy. Redirect. When I got up in the morning after he done this to me the parts felt sore and when they got too sore I told my brother-in-law and he took me to the Police Court. [The witness explained by saying that he was taken to the Station House first and told the Captain that it was on a cart the defendant did it because he was afraid that his brother-in-law would "chase him out of the house." I told the Police Magistrate that it happened in the house because it got worse and I had to tell - it commenced to rot.

Gasquale Accuccia sworn. I have been in this country seven or eight years. The defendant is no relative of mine, but only a countryman. I am from Naples and am a barber at 403 East Fifteenth St.; on the 23rd of October the prisoner came to my place about seven or eight o'clock. The last witness, this boy is my brother-in-law and lives with me; he slept in the kitchen. The defendant came to see me and I treated him well - we had one or two pints of beer. He came from Newark to see me and he said, "it is too late to go in my house, will you let me sleep?" I said, yes. I opened the sofa; there is room enough for two persons. My wife and I went out that night about eleven o'clock to see my brother because his wife arrived from Italy; I went to Port Sixth St. and got back to my home about three o'clock. Then I went away I left the boy and the prisoner in my house; they were just going to bed and when I came back I saw them sleeping together. About two or three days after the boy complained of pain in his backside. He was ashamed to tell me what the matter was. In a couple of days he says he will never be well, he cried. So I took him to Dr. Aselta an Italian doctor, and asked him what was the matter with the boy. He said, "this boy is sick because somebody has fucked him". When I heard that I looked in the boy's face and asked him what is the matter with you? Who does that? He said Annata Daniele. I asked the doctor if I could make a complaint to the police. I went to the Police Station and told all about it. The Captain wanted a certificate from the doctor. I then went to the Fifty Seventh St. Court. Cross Examined. I own the barber shop and owned other barber shops in New York within the last five years. I never tried to sell a barber's shop to the uncle of the defendant, Tommasi Danielle. I was not home when his uncle came to my house. I never accused the defendant of trying to prevent the sale of my barber shop to anybody. I never threatened to get square with him on that account. The defendant never slept at my house before that night. Then I visited the doctor with the boy and he told me that the defendant did it he said he did it on the sofa in my house. As soon as we came home from the doctor's and before we went to the police station he told me that.

Henry Schroder sworn. I am a physician at the Charity Hospital. I know the boy Michale Serrano. I recollect his being admitted into the hospital; it was on Nov. 18th. I made an examination of his person at the time. I found that there was considerable inflammation around the anus and a few ulcerated spots and also considerable purulent discharge at the beginning of the rectum.

It was simply a condition of the parts; there was no disease. In my judgment that inflammation and ulceration was caused by some violence to the part. I was unable to judge at the time whether it was venereal or not. From my examination I judged that there had been penetration of the rectum and the patient told me also at the time. The condition in which I found the boy might have been occasioned by sodomy having been committed upon him, and in my judgment it was. Cross Examined. I treated the patient for this trouble by cleansing the part and by an application of carbolic solution of iodyne to reduce the inflammation and to heal the ulceration. I made a report of the case to the consulting physician; all these cases are entered in the history book. I did not set the case down as venereal because I was not positive about it. I put a question mark after it. I did not give any particular name to it. I did not say in the police Court that it was or was not a chancre. I treated him up to Dec. 5th.

Amata Daniele, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I live in Newark, N.J. for the past two years and am a barber. I own my barber shop at 107 Walnut St. Newark.

I know the complainant, this boy, and saw him at the house on the 23^d of October. I got there about eight o'clock. Then I got in my brother-in-law's room there was Francesco Guozze and his wife, ~~Joanna Bonopama~~, Pasquale Acciccola, Michale Permetto and others. I went to bed about twelve o'clock; there was then in the house Pasquale and his wife and the boy and myself; the others had left. Pasquale and his wife did not go out after the boy and we went to bed. I did not do anything to the boy while going to bed or while in bed. In an hour after I went to bed while lying in it - because the door was open - I talked with Pasquale and his wife, and the boy was lying in bed also. I never attempted to have sexual intercourse with the boy and did not catch him by the throat. I got up between six and seven o'clock the next morning; the boy was up, but Pasquale and his wife were in bed. I left for Newark, and three weeks afterwards when I went to see them I was arrested. Micheal Senora sworn. I am a gunsmith but have not worked at my trade since I left Italy. I am a freeman of a gang of laborers. I know the boy Micheal Senora I saw him on the 15th or 16th of October; he told me he fell from a cart and he had pains in ~~his~~ backside. He was in his brother-in-law's store. An Italian physician came in. I asked the brother-in-law if this was a very heavy sickness? He said it was caused by a fall from a cart and the same pain he had in his back yet.

Raffaele Assetta sworn. I am a physician; this boy called on me last Nov. I made an examination of the rectum; he told me he fell down from a cart. His sister said that was not true and at my request she left the room and upon a further talk with the boy he told me while he was sleeping his cousin from Newark had intercourse with him. I told the sister to poultice the abscess and to take the medicine to relieve the pain and it would be all right in a few days. The sister was angry and wanted to have revenge against the man for doing that thing. I told her there was a Society in New York that would take care of the case.

The boy was not suffering from a venereal disease, but there was an abscess of the rectum.

Alphonse Palestino sworn. I know the defendant six years; he is a very good man.

Franchesca Serano sworn. That is my maiden name, Pasquale Accucchi is my husband, Michale Serano is my brother, I recollect the 23^d of Oct. when the defendant came to our house. I left the house with my husband at eleven o'clock and we left the defendant and the boy in the house. It is not true that I was in bed with my husband and that the defendant talked with me for an hour.

Joanna Stuccola sworn. I recollect the night my barber shop was opened. Pasquale and his wife came to see me and it must have been two or three o'clock when they went away.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

The People
Charles Davis ^{vs} [Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge G. S. S. S. Jan. 4. 1888.
Jointly indicted with Louis Harris for burglary in the third degree.

Alice Hagar sworn. I live at 97 Willett st. in this city. I think it is in the 11th ward. I recollect the 13th of Dec. 1887. I occupied the third floor back, three rooms. I left my apartments on the day in question to go to the next floor about ten o'clock. I left my rooms locked and nobody in them. I went to my mother's room and went out for a pail of water. I looked up and saw my door open. I did not say anything to my mother but ran up and as I did so two men came out. I caught hold of Davis and said, "What are you doing in my room, are you robbing me?" I halloed, "murder, watch." I was excited. Davis punched me and I had a black eye; he hit me in the eye; the other fellow punched me too. I was punched all over. Harris now shown to me is the other man. I followed them down stairs to my mother's hall; there is where they threw me and let my husband's suit of clothes drop. They broke off the side of the door. I missed my plain gold wedding ring worth nine dollars; it was in the bureau. I had the ^{gold} ear ring and pin in a box. My husband's stud worth ten dollars was taken. My husband's suit of clothes was worth twenty five dollars; it was in a closet in my bed room. All the clothes were put out of the closet on the bed, but they were all in order when I left the room. The defendants were caught corner of Delancey and Pitt Sts.; I ran after them and I saw them both caught. Mr. Jerosky, a witness caught them. The prisoners were searched; the Police Captain showed me the wedding ring, the ear rings, my husband's stud. Davis was there at the time. Cross Examined. The entry way of my house is not very light, but I could see their faces. I have seen Davis around the house before this; his face is very familiar. I will not swear positively that I ever saw Davis before. The defendants were inside of my room, and they were just coming out after I got to the top of the stairs. Michael Jerosky sworn. I live at 100 Avenue B and remember the 13th of Dec. when Davis was arrested. I saw him when he was caught. A gentleman named Bengelson caught Davis and I caught Harris, who had the stolen goods in his pocket. I saw them both run; they were together. Davis turned around to see if any body was after him; the lady came around the corner and halloed, "Stop thief." Davis was twenty feet ahead of Harris; he said he had nothing to do with the case. I brought him to the station house.

Andrew Weiser sworn. I am an officer of the 12th precinct. I saw Harris and Davis, I took charge of Davis. There were ball tickets found on each of them. I found nothing else on Davis. On Harris this jewelry, a pawn ticket and some skeleton keys were found. Mrs. Wagar identified the property as hers.

The Case for the Defence.

Louis Harris sworn. I pleaded guilty to this burglary, I do not know Davis; the first time I ever saw him was in the station house; he had nothing to do with the burglary and was not with me. The lady claimed she saw two men in the room, but she did not; she saw me coming out of the door. I pushed her out of the way but did not kick or knock her down. I have been in the Terubs three weeks. I talked with him about the case, I know he is innocent. I was sent to the penitentiary once for six months by Judge Patterson on complaint of my father. The tickets were for the Mrs. J. M. Leary and the Angels of '48 ball. I live at 132 Monroe St. Charles Davis sworn. I reside at 231 Broome St. with my mother. I don't know the premises 97 Willett St. I did not enter the house and did not go there with the other man. When I passed the door I heard the cry of "Stop thief" and saw this man coming out of the place. I ran after him but could not catch him; one of the witnesses here caught me. My friends did not know that I was to be tried today. Cross Examined. I have been assistant bar tender at Montgomery St. and East Broadway and I have peddled fruit. I have never been convicted. I have not paid for the ball tickets yet.

Hyman D. Buegelis sworn for the prosecution. I saw Davis on the 13th of Dec. running and I caught him. I asked him where he was running to and he did not answer me; he got away but I caught him again and had to knock him down. He said he was running after a thief. The lady came up and said, "Hold him, he has robbed that she lived at 100 West 61st. Street, in the Blackburn Flats. On the 15th. of January, she met the defendant Dennis. He ran the passenger elevator in the flat where she resided. She asked him to take a One hundred dollar bill over to Mr. Pape. The bill belonged to her son-in-law. She had tried to change the bill, but it was after eight o'clock in the evening, and the store was closed where they changed large bills for her, and she told the defendant to take the bill over to Mr. Papes. Mr. Pape kept a liquor store. The defendant didn't come back and she never got the money back. She saw him next in the 57th. Street Police Court. He left his post at the elevator and didn't return. He had been running the elevator for several months previously, and everybody thought very highly of him. Her son-in-law's name was Harry Mann.

OFFICER JOHN E. LAWLESS testified that he arrested the defendant at half past five o'clock in the morning, on the 23rd. of November in a house on 30th. Street. The defendant was in bed. He knocked at the door and a woman came to the door, and he said, "There is a bundle of clothes here, do they belong to you? " and the woman said, "There is no clothes belonging to me" and he then heard the defendant's voice inside, and demanded admission, and the defendant opened the door and he told the defendant that he wanted him for Grand Larceny. He told the defendant whose money he had taken and the defendant said that he had taken the $100 bill up to Papes and the wind blew it away. He told another boy to tell the lady that he had lost it.

CROSS-EXAMINATION. None.

JULIUS DENNIS, the Defendant, testified that he was 23 years of age and was a waiter. He had been engaged in that business for 7 or 8 years. He had worked in the Rossmore Hotel, and private houses. He did receive the $100 bill from the complainant, and she sent him to 62nd. Street and Ninth Avenue, to get the money changed, and he could not get it changed, and he went to a grocer who keeps a place under the flats, and the grocer said, "I can't give you all the change. I can give you the change partly and partly a check." and he, the defendant said that it was not his money, and he put the bill in his vest pocket, as he thought, and it was lost. He looked everywhere for the money on the street and could not find it, and he went home and pulled the lining out of the vest, to see if it was in there, and he told his father about it. If he had had the money in the World he would have paid it. He never stole anything in his life. It was the first time that he was ever arrested per charged with any crime in his life.

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION. He testified that he didn't know whether it was windy on the 15th. of January. He didn't tell the officer that the wind blew it away. He was afraid to go back and tell the lady that he had lost the money. He had stayed away for four months from the City because he had a situation at Asbury Park. He didn't tell the officer that the money was blown away. The Sergeant in the Station House said, "You blew the money in. Didn't you?" and he said, "No, I lost it."

Answer.

The complainant gave me the money in the hotel for the purpose of going to bed with me. I believed I had a right to keep it. I did not take it away from him. I bring proof that I did not take the money. He had a two dollar bill and I suppose he gave me the twenty dollar bill thinking that he gave me the two dollar bill. I supposed I was getting a ten dollar bill as he gave it to me in the dark.
