Henry Raabe, aged 56 years, of No. 306, 308 & 310 Cleveland Avenue, <sup>Cabinet Manufacturer</sup> being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the eighth day of March 1884 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, William Messner, now here, did wilfully and feloniously set on fire and attempt to burn said premises, in the night time, in violation of the Statute in such case made and provided. That said premises viz: Nos. 306, 308 and 310 Cleveland defendant did not come to work, and defendant Jones he had changed his place of residence.

 That defendant went to him and accused him of attempting to get fire to the factory whereupon said defendant admitted and confessed to defendant that he had done so and stated that he, defendant, owed his father in law twenty dollars and wanted to get the insurance money on his tools to pay the same. That the tools of said defendant in said factory were Henry Raabe being only from depen & day - I am the proprietor of a cabinet shop at 306-10 11th Ave. I know the prisoner Wilhelm Messner - he works for me, & has worked for me about five months - On Monday morning last, my sons, Herman, & Henry dis covered that an attempt had been made to burn the place, and afterwards showed me what they discovered. The place now here was on the floor & the piece of candle in it, surrounded by burned shavings & covered with a barrel - and a window near by was covered up with the side of a wardrobe. I reported it to the station house, <sup>20th Feb</sup> and the Captain said he would send some one to look after it. They <sup>officers went</sup> ~~arrived~~ with me to find Messner the prisoner. I saw him & charged him with setting the fire and he admitted it to me, then the officers took him to the Station House - Henry Raabe

deposes & says - I was in the Station House where the prisoner <sup>W. Messner</sup> was brought in by officers Vallely & McFaul the said detection. I had a conversation with the prisoner in German. in the presence of Mr Raabe. He said he bought his brother in law twenty dollars & thought he would fire the shop so as to get his insurance money on his tools one hundred & fifty dollars & pay his brother in law. He denied climbing up the window, but admitted getting into the shop at about twelve o'clock by getting over a fence from his boarding house & that he took the plane from the fire bench he came to, & that he got the candle <sup>from</sup> his

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
against

Maudie Mitchell

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Maudie Mitchell

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL FAME, committed as follows:

The said Maudie Mitchell late of the 10th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twentyfourth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common house of ill fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said Maudie Mitchell on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of, and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.—And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said Maudie Mitchell

late of the 10th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the twentyfourth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and willfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and willfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common annoyance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Mande Mitchell ———— of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said Mande Mitchell ———— late of the Eighteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the 24th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eightyfour and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in her ———— said house and place of public resort, for her ———— own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women, in her ———— said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully, did permit, and yet continues to permit, by which the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

against

James Morris

of the CRIME OF BURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the ~~Small~~ Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the ~~21st~~ day of ~~March~~ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ~~four~~ with force and arms, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the ~~factory~~ of ~~Charles W. Hochstaetter the elder~~ there situate, feloniously and burglariously, did break into and enter, the same being a building in which divers goods, merchandise, and valuable things were then and there kept for use, sale and deposit, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property hereinafter described, with intent the said goods, chattels, and personal property of the said

~~Charles W. Hochstaetter the elder~~ then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, and one clock of the value of two dollars, two saws of the value of fifty cents each of the goods, chattels and personal property of the said Charles W. Hochstaetter the elder and one hat of the value of two dollars of the goods, chattels and personal property of the said ~~one~~ Charles W. Hochstaetter the younger so kept as aforesaid in the said ~~factory~~ then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

0441

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS, committed as follows:

The said James Morris late of the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, with force and arms, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, one stack of the value of two dollars and two saws of the value of fifty cents each of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Charles W. Hochstetler the elder, and one hat of the value of one dollar of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Charles W. Hochstetler the younger by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen of the said Charles W. Hochstetler the elder and Charles W. Hochstetler the younger unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have (the said

James Morris

then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels, and personal property to have been feloniously stolen), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
