Grand Larceny of Money.

Amos S. Chamberlin, being duly sworn, says, I reside at No. 47 Lexington Avenue, and am the complainant against the above named defendant, who was indicted by the Grand Jury on the 9th of July, 1880, for the offense of Grand Larceny upon a charge preferred by me against him. All the facts in the case were stated by me in an affidavit before Police Justice Morgan, June 30, 1880. The amount stolen from me was $150, which I recovered at the station house after the defendant's arrest.

I desire and request that no further proceedings be taken upon this indictment, and I recommend that the clemency of the District Attorney and Court be extended to this defendant, and that he be discharged, for the following reasons:

1. The defendant is a mere boy, being but 16 years of age, and his parents who are highly respectable, are greatly grieved at his misconduct.
2. I sympathize with the parents, and believe that more good will be done the State and the defendant by his discharge.
3. I believe the parents of this defendant are capable of doing and will do more to reform him than any Reformatory to which he might be sent.

These are the only considerations that prompt me to ask for this defendant's discharge.
