HON. JOHN B. SHEA,
and a Jury.

New York, July 1st, 1892.

APPEARANCES: AssT. District Attorney Osborne, appears for the people; Mr. Abraham Levy, appears on behalf of the prisoner.

-----:o:-----

RICHARD McLOUGHLIN, duly sworn:

By the Coroner:-

Q What is your occupation? A. I am an officer in the Court of General Sessions.

Q Were you an attendant in Court on the day of this shooting? A. Yes, sir.

Q Tell the Jury, what you know of the shooting? A. The deceased man went up to the Bar to plead -

Q Which man? A. The man that is dead, he was led out of the pen, and passed out up the aisle, and when he was on the way back for us to put him in the pen, again, the prisoner there got up in his seat and reached over the railing like that - and fired a pistol shot like that.

Q How near were you to Clergett when he was shot? A. About from here to the District Attorney.

By Mr. Osborne:-

Q Is that the prisoner? (indicating to prisoner)

A. Yes, sir; that is the man that did the shooting.

Q What part of the Court was it in? A. Part one.

By Mr. Levy:-

Q Did you assist in capturing the prisoner? A. Yes, sir.

Q How far from the prisoner were you when the shooting took place? A. The prisoner was opposite the deceased, I was about from here to you, when the shooting took place - from this man, and the prisoner about that.

Q The prisoner was at a distance about from where you stand to where I am standing? A. About from here to there.

Q How far from the deceased was he?

By the Coroner:-

Q How near was this man to the man he shot? A. He reached over from where he was sitting, he was about this distance from him.

Q You were one of the Officers that captured the prisoner? A. Yes, sir.

Q Do you recollect what the condition of the prisoner was at the time, what his appearance was? A. Cool and calm and never spoke a word.

Q Did he say anything in your presence? A. Not a word - only after we took him back.

Q I mean at the time of the shooting? A. Not a word.

Q Did you jump on him immediately after the shot? A. Yes, sir; I jumped for his throat and held on to the pistol.

By Mr. Osborne:-

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

Q You had some conversation with the prisoner afterwards?

A. Yes, sir.

Q Tell us what he said? A. I made a remark to him -

I told him it was cold blooded murder or something like that - ~~and I said it is a cold blooded~~ I said it is a cold blooded rascal - he said, " That man ruined my sister".

Q Did you see the pistol with which he shot him? A. Not at that time.

Q Did you see it afterwards? A. Yes, sir.

Q Is that the pistol that he did the act with? A. It looks like it I don't know whether that is the pistol it looks to me like the pistol - I never had it in my hand.

By Mr. Levy:-

Q The man seemed to be laboring under great excitement at the time? A. Not until afterwards.

Q Then he seemed to show it? A. After we got the irons on him, he got very nervous.

Q Did you see the expression of his face at the time ~~you~~ made the capture? A. At the time he did the shooting -

I didn't notice anything more about him than any other man.

Q The deceased had pleaded guilty at the time - a few minutes before? A. I don't know what he pleaded when he went up to the Bar, but I heard he did; I don't know whether he did or not.

Q You saw nothing of the prisoner before the shooting?

A. He passed me.

Q I am asking about the prisoner - this prisoner here?

A. I never took any notice until the deceased came back.

Q Your attention was drawn to it when you heard the shot?

A. Yes, sir.

THOMAS COLLYER, duly sworn:

By the Coroner:-

Q What is your business? A. I am an Officer in the Court of General Sessions, Part one.

Q Were you on duty the day this shooting took place?

A. Yes, sir.

Q Describe to the Jury, what you saw? A. The deceased had been to the Bar, and was returning back to the pen, I was standing at the entrance to the pen, and in the opposite way; when he got about half the distance - about from here to there, to this post here - the prisoner was sitting in the seat and he swung around and pointed the pistol at his breast - I saw the flash and heard the report and I immediately ran behind to grab the prisoner, by the arm, and wrenched the pistol from him with the assistance of Mr. McLoughlin, and Officer McKnight, when he was taken to the pen and hand-cuffed, I only saw the flash.

By Mr. Osborne:-

Q Did you hear any conversation with the prisoner? A. I heard a remark after he was taken back he did it on account of the deceased ruining his sister.

Q Did you hear him say - " You would have done the same thing if you were in my place". ? A. I did not, sir.

By Mr. Levy:-

Q Did you observe the appearance of the prisoner at the time of his capture? A. I didn't take any particular notice of it.

Q There was a great deal of excitement in Court at the time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q Did he declaim violently? A. Yes, sir.

Q You wanted to get possession of the pistol? A. Yes, sir.

Q You are not in a position to give us what his appearance was at the time of the shooting? A. He seemed to be calm enough.

Q Did he seem to be laboring under some strain or great excitement? A. No more than any other man would under those circumstances.

Q You had not observed at the time of the shooting had you? A. No, sir.

Q The only intelligent words that you could get from him, were, that the deceased had ruined his sister? A. Yes, sir.

Q Were you present when the deceased pleaded in that Court?

Objected to.

A. I was present, but I didn't notice how he pleaded.

Q So that the Jury maybe informed, perhaps some having never been in that part of General Sessions, - what distance is it where the prisoners are in front of the Bar - what distance is it to the place occupied by the prisoners?

MR. OSBORNE: I will concede that the deceased did plead guilty.

MR. LEVY: To the crime of rape upon the sister of the deceased?

MR. OSBORNE: Yes, sir; I won't concede she was fifteen years old, because I don't know her age.

OFFICER CHARLES McCANN, duly sworn:

I am a Roundsman of the Municipal Police, 3rd Precinct.

By the Coroner:-

Q Are you detailed in the Court of General Sessions?

A. Yes, sir.

Q You were there in this part that day? A. No, sir;

I was on the street when it happened, I was there - there was some trouble up there, and I ran up and I seen the prisoner there, he was hand-cuffed at the time; the man that he shot was lying down - he was just about dying; I asked him what did you shoot this man for, he said, " He ruined my sister, and I thought I would kill him". I couldn't get anything more out of him, after that, I then took him down stairs, and brought him over here; and from there I brought him to the Tombs.

By Mr. Levy:-

Q At the time he spoke to you, that he made the statement that you have just repeated - was he cool or calm? A. He was sitting down looking at the fellow dying.

Q You have had him in your charge bringing him up there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q And you have seen him since the time of the shooting of course? A. Yes, sir.

Q Have you noticed what his general demeanor has been?

Objected to.

A. I couldn't see anything the matter with him at that time.

Q I mean since the time? A. Well, he acted a kind of stupid.

Q Not like a sensible man? A. No, sir; I don't think he did.

Q Like an idiot?

Objected to - question withdrawn.

-----:o:-----

CHARLES McKNIGHT, duly sworn:

I am a Court officer in the Court of General Sessions.

By the Coroner:-

Q Were you in Court on the day of this occurrence? A. Yes, sir.

Q Relate what you saw of it? A. We were arrainging prisoners for pleading that day, and I stood right at the gate leading from the opposite way, and the prisoner, Max Clergett, went to the Bar; we returned back to the prisoner's box to bring him, and coming back the prisoner there - reached over from the second or third seat right like that, and pointed the pistol down that way, and shot the prisoner coming back to the box; as he shot him he kind of turned up and looked to see who it was, and bowed his head; I called the Officer, and said, "Look out for the prisoner" - I reached over the side and grabbed the prisoner, and Officer McLoughlin grabbed him by the throat, and another officer grabbed the pistol; one of the officers said, " We have got the pistol" - and then we conveyed him around to the prisoner's box, and double cuffed him, and sat him in a chair there, and went for to see the prisoner there - he was lying on the floor and he gave two or three struggles and we sent for the Coroner, and he came over.

By Mr. Levy:-

Q Did you observe the appearance of the prisoner at the time of the shooting? A. No, all I could see was the thrust, when I seen that we made a move, we thought he was handing the prisoner something; we have to be very careful; and with that there was a shot, and we stepped up to him at the same moment; he was sitting on a row of seats on the second or third seat from the top, and the prisoner got into the aisle, and he reached over that way, and shot down that way.

-----:o:-----

MARY CLERGETT, duly sworn:

By the Coroner:-

Q Are you married? A. Yes, sir.

Q What relation are you to the dead man? A. I am his sister-in-law.

Q Were you in Court the day this shooting took place?

A. Yes, sir.

Q Relate to the Jury, what you know if anything, about the shooting? A. I came down town with my brother; and we went into Court together, and where the ladies sit, he wanted to come and sit with me, he came in and sat where I was and when he sat with me the other side of me - the man at the door told him to go back; he walked back and sat down at the end of the bench; I was listening for Max Clergett's case to be called, when Max came out of the prisoner's pen he passed my brother down - he looked at me and pleaded guilty. When he came back I seen my brother shaking and working his eyes, as if they were jumping out of his head, I thought the sight drove him frantic after the deed he did I thought he was going to follow him when I heard a shot and the sparks came out - that is all I know.

By Mr. Levy:-

Q You say you saw your brother working himself up into a frenzy? A. Yes, sir; at the sight of Max Clergett.

Q Your brother has not been entirely sane?

Objected to; objection sustained.

MR. OSBORNE: I will not ask you any questions, Mrs. Clergett.

By the Coroner:-

Q You are the sister of this young man here? A. Yes, sir.

-----:o:-----

HENRY CLERGETT, duly sworn:

By the Coroner:-

Q You are the brother of the dead man? A. Yes, sir.

Q You were not in Court the day of the shooting? A. No, sir; I was not.

Q Then you don't know anything about the shooting? A. No, sir; I do not.

-----:o:-----

MR. LEVY: The deceased was killed by a pistol shot; whereby the Jury have no power to pass upon the condition of the prisoner at the time, and I shall not offer any evidence on that point.

they have no record of boys ever having been arrested and the boy says himself he has never been guilty of any wrong doing. Boy professes to be entirely innocent of the charge and so far as officers can learn he was misled by Edwin Dyer into visiting the premises on the 9th by his (Dyer) claiming his father had bought the house and was going to fix it up new and that they a number of fruit trees on the grounds. He also states there was nothing whatever done while he was present, it having been perpetrated at some previous time. Boy's reputation is excellent both school and out floor, and he is now in graduating class of Grammer School #8 and expects to enter college next Spring. He has a comfortably furnished home with his father and sister his mother being dead. Father is highly respected wherever officer has made inquiry.
