The People
 Daniel Hughes } Court of General Sessions. Part First.
 Indictment for burglary in the third degree and receiving stolen goods. Henry C. Hoerle, sworn and examined.
 I live 690 Sixth Avenue in this city in the 20th ward. I am a tailor, my place of business is 691 Sixth Ave. I reside opposite across the way.
 My premises were broken into between the 7th and 8th of February. At 4th past two an officer came and rung my bell and called me down to the store. I found the store open and a coat right on the front door, inside of the door, and when we examined we found there was a side pane broke about seven inches wide about half way up; somebody was slipped in very likely and went back and dressed themselves; we found some old clothes there and the officer found a pawn ticket there too; we found taken from the store pants and a jacket.
 We found a whole lot of clothes on the floor.
 It seems it did not suit them or they had not time to take them off. There were four or five pairs of pantaloons and two or three coats put in a pile. I examined some clothing at the pawnshop of Mr. Mintz. I found a coat and vest that belonged to me that was stolen.
 These were new clothes, never worn. I recognized them as a part of the goods I had in my store. The night before I closed the store with my boy. Do you know whether the doors were all closed and fastened? Yes sir, the policeman tried them. Cross Examined There was a pawn ticket found in the old clothes. Joseph Cottrell, sworn and examined, testified. I am a member of the police force of the 22nd precinct. Did you arrest the prisoner? Yes sir. What, if anything, did you find on his person? I found two pawn tickets. Have you ever seen that ticket before (ticket shown) Yes sir, I found that ticket on the person of the prisoner. I went with it to Mr. Mintz. I arrested him the next morning after the burglary was committed. I went to the pawn shop the next morning after I arrested him. The goods that I found that the ticket represented had Mr. Hoerle's name on the coat. That is all I know. Mr. Hoerle came and identified the goods as his. Was this man there when he identified the goods? No sir, he was in Court. When I found those pawn tickets he (the prisoner) said that they were the pawn tickets of his own clothes. The goods that that ticket represented called for a coat and vest. The other ticket was for a coat in Mr. Fay's, the pawnbroker's. I found the owner for that yesterday. Did you discover the broken window? No sir, it is not in my precinct at all. I did not arrest the prisoner on this charge but upon other charge.

0773

0774

Asher Mintz, sworn and examined testified: Where do you live? No 874 Eighth ave. What is your business? Pawnbroker. Where is your place of business? No 874 Eighth ave. Is that one of your pawn tickets (shown) Yes sir. Do you know to whom you gave that ticket? I gave that ticket to a young man. Do you see the young man present in Court? I do right before me, that is the young man (pointing to the prisoner) Then was that? In the morning of February 8. What did you lend him money on? I lent him money on a coat and vest. How much? Two dollars and fifty cents. Cross Examined. I first saw the prisoner when he came in the store with the coat and vest as near as I can recollect about 11 o'clock. I don't know how many tickets I made out that day. It was 12 cents for "hanging up." There was nothing peculiar about the dress of the prisoner or about his manner of coming into the store. The next day after the detective came in with the complainant, the coat was lying there on the shelf as I left it wrapped up. He saw only the back of it and said, "There is a coat and vest belongs to me;" he identified it. The detective asked me what kind of a party brought it in. I told him a young man who was a little shorter than I was. He gave the name of Mr. Laughlin; it is on the ticket.

0775

Daniel Hughes, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am 23 going on 24 years old. Now you heard what Mr. Mintz he said that you panned the coat and vest ~~at~~ this ticket represents on the 8th day of February did you? No sir. Where did you get that ticket? I found that ticket corner of Fifty third St. and Ninth Avenue. Cross Examined: Where do you live? Forty ninth and Fiftieth St., and Eleventh are in this city. What is your business? Truck driver. Who do you drive a truck for? Mr. McKean. Is he here in Court? I do not know. Where do you say you found this ticket? Right on the corner of Fifty third St. and Ninth Ave a little off the gutter. That and another ticket was lying in the gutter. I could not see any name on them. What did you do with the ticket? I put it in my pocket - found the two tickets and a button hook together. I don't remember the date when I found them I don't remember the time of day, I guess it was between ten and 11 o'clock. That is all I know about it. I was arrested for being drunk. I was convicted last week of petty larceny upstairs. I was convicted once before for stealing. I have had four convictions in all. I did not tell the officers what the tickets represented I was driving a truck all night on the 8th of February. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. He was sent to the State prison for four years.
