Catharine Barrows, says that on Sunday last, in morning she looked for her wash Basin & found it under Mrs. O'Brien's bed almost filled with dirt, thereupon she threatened to report the fact to the Sergeant. Mrs. O'Brien then got up and pulled her by the hair and bit her in the shoulder. Catharine retaliated by striking her in the face causing her to fall on the bed. Mrs. O'Brien then ~~came~~ went down stairs. ~~Thomas as reported~~ Catharine Barrows was so excited nervous she could not eat. Mr. McGowan came up and she said that he ought not to scold her all the time, because she feared another scolding, he always scolds her when she comes up. He called her a name & pushed her at the same <sup>time</sup> giving her a kick on the left side, throwing her down. She could not designate the exact place as she has been beaten and bruised all over her body. He then took her and told her he was going to take her out, and he violently pushed her down the stairs. He then kept her down stairs in the office with very little clothes on and in full view of the men's room. She was then locked in a cell and asked would she behave herself. She said she had not done anything. He told her to go up and dress, he would take her to <sup>and return her to Ireland</sup> Castle Garden, and would send the clothes after her by express, when they arrived at the Tomb he said they would have to go in to get a pass and he then put her in the prison pen. She has never had any trouble with anyone except a slight quarrel with a colored woman now discharged named Martha Jackson. She was never beaten by anyone before or since. Last Sunday (Mary Bauer 152 West 28 St. near 2<sup>d</sup> fl. with Mrs. Quinn is a German woman who was in the house at the time of this quarrel) Catharine says she is not compelled to <sup>do</sup> any work whatever. She says she has no complaint to make against the Sergeant she ~~has~~ says he has always treated her well and has not made any complaint to ~~make~~ him. She says that none of the men or officers come to their room except Mr. McKown who has been up 3 times to scold her when other women have made complaints against her.

This morning Catharine + Mrs. Smith were in the sitting room and Mrs. O'Brien was singing in the bedroom. Catharine was sweeping + Mrs. O'Brien was singing. Catharine said she is singing now in a little while she will be crying again about that child. Mrs. O'Brien said she had no business to say that they had a few words but Catharine claims no blows were struck by either side.

05 12

Thomas McGowan says on Sunday morning about 8 o'clock. He heard Catharine Barrows swearing and hollering on the top floor he then being on the 1st floor. He went up and brought her down to keep her until the Sergeant returned from breakfast. He told her to put more clothes on, at least a wrapper, but she refused. He kept her in the hall where she could not be seen. She became very violent and demanded to be let out, and struggled with <sup>and bit him</sup> McGowan, he then put her in the cell until the Sergeant came about 10 minutes thereafter. <sup>Maggie</sup> ~~W. J.~~ O'Brien made a complaint against Catharine Barrows for assault and he took her to the Tombs. McGowan specifically denies every assertion made by Catharine as to his violence towards her. He admits telling her he was going to take her to Castle Garden. He said it by order of the Sergeant as she refused to put any clothes on until he made that statement.

Mrs. Julia Tillman Matron of the house. says that on Sunday morning while in her room she heard some one cry murder she went out & found Maggie O'Brien lying at the head of the stairs crying that she had been struck by Catharine Barrows. The Matron then went up and told Catharine to be quiet Catharine ran after Mrs O'Brien who went into the Matrons room. When Catharine returned the Matron told her to quiet down. Catharine said "By the jumping Jesus Christ I'll clear out the house." Later she saw Catharine in the hall with Mr.
 McGowan he wanted her to be quiet and sit down she refused and bit at him, he thereupon put her in a cell with the assistance of the Matron. The Matron fully corroborates all Mr. McGowan says of the transaction in the lower hall.

The Matron says she does not compel any witness to do work, as she has no work for them to do, they sometimes ask to do work. They generally make their own beds but are not compelled to do so.

Catharine Barrows is very violent and quarrelsome and also struck at the matron.

Police Department of the City of New York,

Precinct No. _____

New York, _____ 188

James Smith the Doorman on duty Sunday morning says he was called up by the matrons mother that Catharine was killing Mrs O'Brien. He went up and found Catharine on the head of the stairs of the top floor and Mrs O'Brien on the floor below crying and complaining about her back and said she could not walk, and had been beaten by Catharine. He then took Catharine down stairs and she claimed she was being abused.

Maggie O'Brien. says that on Sunday morning Catharine Barrows came to her bed where she was at work arranging it & took ahold of her by the back of the neck and threw her on the bed face downwards. Maggie said dont kill me. Catharine then struck her 6 times on the shoulder & kicked her 3 times on the ~~left~~ right side of the body.

Catharine had no shoes on at the time. She kept on abusing her which Maggie never answered and never even raised her hands to defend herself but made every effort to get away and finally ran down to the matron's room. While she was held down she hollered murder, (which McGown said he heard down in the yard).

She had never had a quarrel with Catharine before or since except this morning when Catharine came into Maggie's room and struck her twice with the handle of a broom saying I'll pay you for what you did on Sunday. Maggie immediately ran down and reported the fact to the doorman and sergeant.

Maggie says that she is not compelled to do any work whatever and has never heard of any other witness being compelled to do any work. Maggie does her own work, fixes her bed etc. but says she does it more for pastime.

Annie Smith says on Sunday morning she was in the sitting room when Catharine Barrows began a quarrel with Maggie O'Brien about some dirt which she alleged Mrs. O'Brien made. Mrs. O'Brien denied the same. Catharine then went into the sleeping room where Mrs. O'Brien was making her bed. She heard them quarrelling she heard Mrs. O'Brien call "murder she'll kill me" or something to effect. Mrs. Smith was afraid to interfere because Catharine was so violent and swore "By the jumping Jesus I'll clear the house out". Mrs. O'Brien then came out and went down stairs with Catharine running after her. Mrs. Smith then went down with Mrs. Barrow and met Catharine coming up. Mrs. Smith asked her to come down to breakfast - Catharine replied she had had her breakfast. This morning Catharine was sweeping the sitting room, and Mrs. O'Brien was singing. Catharine said she was singing because she was pleased she had shamed her on Sunday. Catharine then ran into the bedroom after Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Smith says she could not see ~~whether~~ whether Catharine struck her, but Mrs. O'Brien came out and ran screaming down the stairs. Catharine came out of the bedroom and said "She would kill her before she left the house". Mrs. Smith says neither she nor any of the other witnesses are compelled to do any work.

Some time ago a Crooked woman claiming to be a recent arrival in the Country. Came very near involving one of the Police of Jersey City in a scrape similar to your Client McCarty. She may possibly be the same, which could easily be ascertained by applying to Chief Ben. Murphy to send over Doorman Wait of the 3rd Det. in Oakland Ave who had her in charge while the charge was being investigated. Wait is a sharp gambler and could tell her at a glance, through his scrutiny of the make of her dress and an examination of the Steamship list of passengers the det was saved.

I did not take in sympathy with your Client but to foil a Crooked woman if she is such.

MR. MCCARTHY'S INFLUENCE.

TIMOTHY MCCARTHY, the wealthy Oak street dive-keeper, was called up yesterday for sentence, and a motion was made for a stay, the prisoner's counsel stating his intention to move for a new trial on the ground of errors and of newly discovered evidence. It was asserted that the plaintiff had been a married woman in Philadelphia and was well known to the police, and that she was not a green immigrant from Castle Garden when MCCARTHY lured her to his den, abused her, beat her and kept her in fear of her life. The Judge adjourned the case for one week from next Monday, and the ruffian chuckled, shook hands with his able counsel, and was evidently hopeful that his money and his "pull" would yet enable him to cheat justice.

It is to be sincerely hoped that a severe sentence will be passed on this criminal and enforced. Whatever may be the character of the woman who was his last victim, she is entitled to the protection of the law. The crime is the same, and the fact that the character of the plaintiff is only now assailed, proves that Mc-CARTHY supposed her to be reputable and virtuous when he committed the offense. He is evidently a ruffianly criminal of the most dangerous character, and one whose liberty is a peril to the community. The law has the brute now in its grasp, and the District-Attorney should take care that it holds him firmly and casts him into prison, where he can for a time do no harm.

Dear Sir,

I see by the news papers that you have had a Timothy Mc Carthy before you on a serious charge preferred by one Catharine Barrows, Now if you will allow me, I will give you some information, relating to this woman, She has been in our hands very often since her first arrest in this District which was on Sept 15th 1883. She is known among us as a Thief & a Drunken worthless character, I have had her here several times on charge of Larceny from Residences of people who had her in their employ. as a Servant, She was known to us as Catharine Fisher & is a rather large woman and the last time we had her which was March 14 - 1885, she gave her age as 30 years but has given different ages at other times, She claimed to have a child in the Phila<sup>a</sup> Almshouse & said she had been an inmate of that institution herself. She made her general stopping place with a man named Bradley at #3425 Woodland Ave a house of bad reputation the proprietor of which was killed in a brawl last January. She gets the name of Barrow, from an old man of that name who was a resident of Fernwood Del. Co. Pa. This old man used to stop at Bradley's Tavern and being an old man and a widower they in some manner prevailed upon him to marry her which he did. He took her to his Farm and attempted to reform her but the attempt was fruitless. In the early part of this year Mr. Barrow died, & she got hold of some money which was given her out of the Estate. I don't know how much but think the amount was small as Mr. Barrow had married children by his first wife. She was sent to House of Corrections from here, while she was his wife which was only for a few months. Altogether she is a dangerous woman, looks rather as if she might be an immigrant. And cannot be believed in any statement she may make.

P.S.

Not knowing the address of McCartys Atty, if you will give would probably do Mc Cartty a

Hon Henry A. Goldensleeve

Judge of Court of General Sessions

Dear Sir

I have examined Annie Mc Closkey charged with killing her child and acquitted on the ground of insanity. At the present time she is perfectly sane and has possession of all her senses.
She killed her child during an attack of delirium tremens. This is an acute disease and generally ends in recovery. It has done so in the case of Annie Mc Closkey and she left her sane and responsible.

Respectfully submitted
William L. Hardy M.D.

filed Feb.

The People
 Robert M. Every (Before Recorder Smyth. Feb. 24. 1888.
 Indictment for grand larceny in 1st degree John Perry sworn. I reside in 28 Washington st. Brooklyn; my place of business is 66 Catherine st. New York. I recognize the defendant; on the 1st of Feb. I was riding in the East Broadway cars, I guess it must have been 10 1/2 o'clock at night. I got on a car at Grand street and East Broadway and I missed my watch before I came to Clinton st. I was with my wife visiting; the car was pretty well crowded, the seats were all full and the standing room was full too.
 I passed through the car to the front to pay my fare, unbuttoned my coat, took out change and put it into the box. As I did a party brushed <sup>me</sup> up against that gentleman (the prisoner) and at that moment I missed my watch. I grabbed his hand and said, "Give me that watch," and I grabbed him by the throat. He says, "I have not got your watch. A lady sitting in the corner says, 'He passed it to that man who got out of the car.' The prisoner was standing at the door. The watch guard was in his hand at the time. I stopped the car. There was an officer on the corner

He came in the car and took the prisoner in custody. He did not have the guard loose, it was hanging, the watch had gone, he had it in his hand, it was not taken off my vest. The silver watch was worth fifteen dollars. I do not remember whether the prisoner was on the car the time I got on or not.

Bernard Myers sworn. I am an officer of the 7th precinct. I saw the prisoner on the night of the 1st of Feb. a little after ten. The complainant had a hold of him at the time I went in the car with his back up against the money box, he held him by the throat. I arrested the prisoner.

Robert McEvoy sworn. I am 15 years old and live at 62 Union St. Brooklyn with my mother. I have never been arrested before. I worked for Brainard and Jones at envelopes for seven months. The night I was arrested I was going to my aunt's in Madison St. between Pike and Rutgers Sts. I went there about 7 1/2 and about ten o'clock I left there to go home. I walked up Rutgers St. to East Broadway and I jumped on the cars to go down town. I was on the cars and was not at Pike St. yet when I saw two young men standing in the middle of the car. One had ch a brown overcoat and a little moustache I could not recognize the other man's face. Mr. Perry was walking down and these two young men shoved in between him. He got up and he walked passed me and I walked past him to the box. I put my fare in the box, I turned around; there was no room to sit down. I stood there; he went up and grabbed me by the throat and he held me over a lot of men standing there. He said, "Give me my watch." I says, "I have 'nt got your watch." He went through me right there. Some woman says that she saw me pass his watch, but I had nothing to do with his watch. I did not take notice to him until he grabbed me by the throat. I did not take the man's watch. Did you have hold of his watch guard as he described here? No sir, I was the length of the car away from him when he walked up and caught me by the throat. I work all the time. Cross Examined. I left Brooklyn about five o'clock; This was Sunday night. I was not with anybody I crossed in the Hamilton Avenue ferry. I got on the South st. cars and rode up as far as Pike St. I got to my aunt's about half past six o'clock; my aunt is not in Court. I have seen her since I was arrested. It was ten o'clock when I left my aunt's house. I took my supper at home. When I came out of her house I walked up Rutgers St. to East Broadway and there took a car. The car was full when I got in. and people were standing up in the middle. I did not see the complainant get on the car. I walked right up and put my fare in the box. These two men that were in front of me would not let me pass. I stayed until they got out of the road and they got off the car. When I opened the door one of them stood in front of the door. I had to stand outside and the two of them moved aside and Mr. Perry came in. By the Recorder. Was Mr. Perry in the car before you got in? Yes sir. These two men were standing in front of Mr. Perry. They got in between me and Mr. Perry. I did not have my hand near Mr. Perry. I did not see Mr. Perry go up and pass his fare in. I have been in jail three weeks and during that time I have not seen or heard from my aunt Catherine McEvoy sworn. I am the mother of the defendant. I live 62 Union St. Brooklyn. I remember that he left home Sunday night at 4 1/2 or 5 o'clock to go to.
