To Hon. Henry A. Gildersleeve. or Justice presiding.

We the undersigned residents, and doing business, in the City of New York, hereby recommend to your favorable consideration the case of Daniel Carey who has been charged with the crime of embezzlement; we have known him for a number of years, and have always found him to be honest, upright, and industrious, to a high degree, and think that if he had not been overcome, as we have been informed, from the effects of intoxicating liquors, that the offense charged would not have been committed, and we do not believe, from what we know of his character and disposition, that he had any criminal intention of appropriating the twenty eight dollars ($28.00) he collected, but that he simply used the same temporarily with the honest intention of repaying the same to his employers.

The defendant is well connected 0564

the members of his family being estimable and worthy people, and it would be an everlasting disgrace and blot upon his and their good name, if he should be sentenced to prison; the wife of the defendant is in delicate health, and it is feared that if leniency be not shown to him in this matter, that it may be of serious consequence to her.

We therefore respectfully request you to be lenient with the defendant and suspend the sentence which the law prescribes, and give him an opportunity of righting himself, and save him from a felon's cell, and further disgrace.

We remain

Yours most Respectfully.

Abraham Cohen

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The amount involved being the amount of the goods obtained from me by the untrue representation of the defendant, I have in pursuance of my civil rights sued for and obtained judgment thereon against the defendant in the New York Supreme Court. The amount of this judgment and my expenses have been collected by my Attorney on my behalf, and my pecuniary damage has been made whole to me thereby. The defendant is an ignorant person who states that he cannot read or write, being only able to sign his name. I believe this to be true as my book-keeper and myself read the statement signed by him when before his signing name. He declares that he intended to pay my claim, and intended to protect it in his general assignment by preferring me, but that he signed

I said general assignment without being fully aware of its contents or of the omission to protect my claim therein. Independent of the collection of my civil judgment I cannot conceive that defendant's statement is open to much doubt for no man in his senses would after putting his signature to such statement attempt to evade payment of the debt contracted on the faith of it, and hope to maintain either his assignment or escape the consequences attending a failure of payment.

I am informed that defendant has a wife and a large family of small children dependent on him, and I am further informed that he is quite ill from nervous prostration. I believe that he has already been punished quite sufficiently for what may have been an unintentional wrong on his part, and I have not learned of his having made a similar statement in writing to his other creditors.

It is also true that his trade the clothing business was very disastrous last fall and winter, and he may have had an honest intent to pay for my goods when he obtained them for me.

On the whole facts, I deem it just to unite in the prisoner's application for clemency.
