Bernard Moduillers, 179 East 115 Street, bartender. On the 18th of November, 1888, at about half past five o'clock in the morning, I left my room at said premises. I then saw the overcoat belonging to me, hanging in said room. When I returned in the evening at about eleven o'clock, the said coat was missing from my said room, and I also missed a gold ring which had been there in the morning. Both articles were returned to me on the 19th of November, 1888, by a brother of the defendant herein. If I would sell the coat to-day, I think it would not bring more than $15, the ring may be worth $5.

Lillian Warren, 179 East 115th Street, unmarried. I live with my parents at said premises. Both the complainant and the defendant were lodgers with us on the 18th of November, 1888, the first occupying the front room and the defendant with two other gentlemen living in the back room of the top floor of said premises. At about five o'clock in the afternoon I saw the defendant leave the house with complainant's <sup>said</sup> overcoat on. He I never saw him with an overcoat on before. At said time he had lived for two weeks at our house. On said day he returned at about a quarter to eleven o'clock in the evening ~~the defendant~~ ~~over~~ ~~house~~ without an overcoat. I had waited for his return, to see whether he would put the overcoat back into complainant's room.

Minnie Murphy of No. 138 West 85th Street, aged 19 years, occupation Nurse being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 14th day of December 1888 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

A leather pocketbook of the value of twenty five cents. Containing good and lawful money of the United States to the amount of Eighty six Cents. and a plated pencil of the value of twenty five cents. Together of the value of one dollar and one cent

($1.36)

the property of deponent.

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Charles Harris (Ninners) from the fact that deponent is informed by William H. Seward of No 36 9th 152nd St. that he Seward saw the said defendant take said pocketbook from the right hand pocket of the New Market Coat then and there worn by this deponent.

deponent further informed by Officer Edward G. Gluman of the 19th Precinct Police that he the officer chased the said defendant into the premises No 40 West 27th St. and arrested him on the 4th floor of said premises and on the 2nd floor of said premises he the officer found a pocket book under a mat Deponent further says that she has since seen the pocketbook which the Officer found under a mat. on the 2<sup>d</sup> floor of the premises no 40, W 213<sup>d</sup> St. the premises wherein the defendant was arrested. and fully identifies said pocket book and its contents as her property.

Wherefore deponent charges the said defendant with felonious taking, stealing and carrying said property from the right hand pocket of the New Market Coat then and there done by this deponent as a portion of her bodily clothing.

in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a five story tenement house and which was occupied by deponent as a store on the first floor and in which there was at the time a human being, by name Mark Gunther were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking open the fanlight over the store door and then unlocking the street door from the inside.

on the 29 day of November 1888 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

three barrels of poultry of the value of about one hundred dollars, the said barrels were marked "Gunther 301 25th Avenue." The cash drawer of said store was broken open and about four dollars in small change was taken, and some loose poultry all of the value of about one hundred and thirty dollars $130-

the property of Deponent

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed, and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Patrick Hart, (now here) and two others not arrested, whose names are unknown to deponent, for the reasons following, to wit: Deponent securely closed and locked the said premises at 11 o'clock P.M. on Nov 28 and the said property was then in said place about 5 o'clock A.M. on Nov 29, as deponent is informed by Policeman Alexander Shields, now here, the said store was found broken open as aforesaid, and the defendant Hart was caught vember, 1888, at about five o'clock in the afternoon morning, while on duty in South Avenue, between 28th and 29th Street, I saw two boys crossing 28th Street, going northward. One of them had a bag. I went for them. The boys ran off. The bag was dropped on the sidewalk. One of the boys, the defendant Patrick Hart, ran into the house #52 West 28th Street, and was caught by officer Piers. I ran after Talbot, but could not capture him. Hart admitted in my presence and in the presence of officer Piers and Moradine, of the same precinct, that he and the defendant <sup>Talbot</sup> had committed a burglary at No. 301 South Avenue. He gave me a description of Tolbot, by which I recognized him when I met him two days later. On being arrested and also in the Police Court he admitted to me and officer Walsh that he aided and assisted Hart in committing said burglary. The said bag contained a quantity of poultry, which the defendant admitted having stolen from the complainant, Mark Quinther's place, 301 South Threemile. Hart took us then to the house 452 West 28th Street, and shows there we found in the cellar three barrels full of poultry and a lot of other poultry lying around, which Hart admitted had also been stolen by him and his accomplices from complainant's store.

Mark Quinther, brother, 301 South Threemile. On the 28th of November, 1888, at about twelve o'clock in the night time, I securely locked my store at said place, before retiring. At about five o'clock the next morning

I was awakened by a policeman who informed me that my store had been broken in. In coming to my store, I found the door open and also the fanlight above the same. I missed three barrels of poultry and also about 175 pounds of poultry that had been in the ice house. The defendant Hart was brought to my said store and admitted that he had broken into the store through the fanlight and carried off the poultry with the aid of Sobot. The cash box in my store was also broken open in said night and the sum of $4 in small coins taken from it. I live in the said house and was sleeping there when the burglary was committed.

 the defendant William Heidelberg came to said pawn office with a pawn ticket representing said coat. and wanted to redeem it. the pawn broker refused to give up the coat until the person who pawned it came to said pawn office. the defendant William Heidelberg then brought his brother Gustave who had pawned said coat to said pawn office. when he the Detective Sergeant arrested the said defendant William then admitted that he gave said pawn ticket to his brother Gustave. And Gustave admitted that he received the ticket from William. and Gustave then admitted that he was the person who pawned said coat.
 Defendant has since seen said coat which was in said pawn shop and fully identified it as his property. and charges the said defendants

THOMAS SIMPSON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a pawn broker at No. 195 Bowery . The defendant pawned the coat in my place. After he had left Mr. Goodman came to my office and identified the coat as one which had been taken from his place the night before . A few days later a man giving his name as William Heidelberg came with the ticket for the coat and I told him that before I would give him the coat he must go and bring the person who pawned the coat . He went out and soon returned with this defendant . I asked the defendant where he got the coat and he told me that a man who looked like an actor had given it to him to pawn and that when he returned with the ticket the man gave him both the ticket and a quarter . The detective arrested both the men in my office .

CROSS EXAMINATION:-

I don't remember the name in which the coat was at first pawned .

EDGAR S. SLAWSON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:-

I am a detective officer attached to the Central Office . I arrested the defendant at Simpson's pawn office in the Bowery . The man William Heidelberg said that he had gotten the ticket from his brother Gustav . Gustave stated to me that he got the coat from a man at the corner of Bowery and Delancey Street and that the man gave him a ticket and a quarter . . He said that he gave the ticket to his brother as he knew that his brother was in need of an overcoat . I have heard this boy state that the man William Heidelberg is not his brother . I also heard his mother state it . His name is not Heidelberg .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I did not connect this boy with any of the other stolen coats which were pawned . The ticket has been lost .

GUSTAVEHEIDELBERG, the defendant, sworn, testified:

My right name is Charles Umfree . On the morning of the 9th of December I was going through the Bowery and I saw a man standing on the corner of Delancey and Bowery . He called me over to him and handed me an overcoat and asked me if I would take it and pawn it for him he said he was short of money . I took it and pawned it for him . I brought him back the ticket; he gave me the ticket and twenty five cents for my trouble . I took the ticket and gave it to a friend of mine William Heidelberg alias my brother . I told the same story to Mr. Simpson as I am telling now . If I saw the man again I would know him. The man William Heidelberg told me to say that I was his brother and that is the reason I did it. He said to me "Say you are my brother or you will get me into trouble". I was not present at the commission of this burglary. I do not know anything at all about it. I have never been arrested before in my life.

I live with my mother in Rivington Street. For a few nights before I was arrested I had been sleeping in lodging houses in the Bowery. I asked the man Indictment filed Dec. 11-1888 who had been with me in the Bowery. I was afraid it was might be into trouble. He told me that it was his own brother and that he was a brother of mine on the same name.

 The jury returned a verdict of guilty of Receiving stolen goods knowing the same to have been stolen.
