Part II.

----- Before Honorable
The People of the State of New York : Frederick Smyth, against :
W I L L I A M G I L M A R T I N . :
----- and a Jury.

Indictment filed September 28th 1887.

New York, October 20th 1887.

APPEARANCES: For the People Asst. District
Attorney A. H. Purdy.

For the defendant : W. S. McPheeters

CATHARINE MANGIN, a witness for the People testified:

I live at No. 32 Park Street. I know the prisoner at the bar. On the 17th of September this year, about four o'clock I saw this defendant in the cellar of the rear house at the number where I live with this little child. I heard this defendant say to the child "Would you come down to the cellar and play monkey; I was at my window looking out; I saw them go down into the cellar and about half an hour afterwards I heard the child crying and I ran down stairs and I says "What is the matter with you ". I opened the child's pants and his little back side was as red as a coal of fire. I saw Gilmartin come out of the cellar after the child; I saw him buttoning his pants.

Cross Examination:-

The child I have spoken of is my sister's child--a boy . I did not see anybody else except Gilmartin and the child when I looked out of the window. Gilmartin went into the cellar first. I did not have any quarrell that morning with Gilmartin wabout beer or anything else . The littleboy made a complaint to me . I was up two flights of stairs when I saw thesetwo going into the cellar.

Q. You did not see thetwo boys together ? A.. No sir % I should not wish to see it .

Q. Then what you are stating as to what occurred in the cellar is from what this little feloow told you ?

A. Yes sir, I will swaer^a to it over andover again .

MAGGIE MARTINET, a witness for the People, testified:-

I am the mother of this little child spoken of. I examined him on the day in question. I saw the boy's back side it was very much inflamed and red and large .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I take care of this child . I had Dr. Paregras examine him --I did not make any examination my self but I meant I saw him when the doctor examined him.

D E F E N C E --

WILLIAM GILMARTIN, the defendant , testified:o-

I am 17 years old, and live at No. 32 Park St. with my mother. On the day spoken of I was putting in two to n of coal and this woman came over to me--this child came tover to me and said that his aunt sent him down for seven cents ; his aunt before that seen me putting in the coal. I says "I ain't got it". The aunt came down and asked me for seven cents and I would not give it to her. I went up to her room and she had two Italians in there at five o'clock and she asked me for seven cents and I would not give it to her and she said she would get square on me ; afterwards she came down stairs and then came up again and charged me with this crime . I first heard of this charge after putting in the second ton of coal about quarter of six. I was not in the cellar with that little boy. I did not have anything to do with the boy . I did not see this woman in the cellar at all .

Cross Examination)

I was putting in the two tons of coal for a woman named Mack & I drank a glass and a half of beer on that day. I was not drunk when the officer arrested me . I told the officer that the boy came down to the cellar when I was carrying in a basket of coal and he asked me for seven cents . When the officer charged me with this crime I told him that there were plenty of girls around there if I wanted to do anything like that .

JOSEPH G. KAVANAGH, a witness for the defendant, testified:-

I reside at No. 37 Park St. I have known this defendant for seven years. I recollect helping this defendant to put in coal on the 17th of September. It was about 35 minutes after four when we got through putting in the coal. I did not see this little child in the cellar. If he had been around there I would have seen him and I would not let him go into the cellar.

I did not notice Mrs. Mangin around there at all at any time that day.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I say that the little boy did not come into the cellar.

Q The defendant says that the little boy came to the cellar and asked him for some money ?

A He could not get into the cellar as i was on the other side and could not let anybody pass.

By Mr. McPheeters:-

Q You were down in the cellar ? A. Yes sir .

Q And the defendant fileled the baskets and passed them to you ? A . Yes sir .

Q He went down two or three steps and handed them to you ? A. Yes sir .

QX And you took them and threw them in ? A. Yes sir .

BRIDGET GILMARTIN: a witness for the defendant testified:

I am the mother of this defendant. On the day in question Mrs. Mangin told me that herself and my son fell out in the afternoon . She said he had taken his clothes out of her rooms after they had the fight . Constantine Conlan, testified to the good character of the defendant .

George W. Smith, a police officer testified as to the arrest of the defendant and as to his having been drinking beer

The JURY returned a verdict of GUILTY.

BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

William Gilmartin.

The prisoner William Gilmartin, 19 years of age, a printer, residing at 33 Park Street, is indicted for the crime of the offence against nature, committed by him upon a child five years old named Julius Maitnet, in the same house, on Saturday September 17th.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PEOPLE.

CATHERINE MANGAN: - Resides at No. 33 Park Street. Is the aunt of the boy Julius Maitnet who is five years of age. On September 17 witness heard the child cry and went to the cellar of the building and saw the prisoner going out of the cellar buttoning his pantaloons, and the boy Julius then said to witness in the prisoner's presence "Willie Gilmartin had his doodle in my backside." This was about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. She first saw Gilmartin in the yard while looking out of her window, and shortly after saw Gilmartin and a nephew go down into the cellar. A little while after she heard the boy scream, then ran down into the cellar and saw Gilmartin buttoning the boy's pants, and then it was the boy made the statement to her as to what had been done to him.

JULES MAITNET: - Is five years of age. Will identify the prisoner and state what he did to him.

JULIUS MAITNET: - Is the father of the boy. Resides at the above place. He examined the boy's rectum shortly after the occurrence and found an inflammation there. On September 19, by direction of the court, he had the child examined by Dr. Parraga 35 City Hall Place.

~~DR. PARRAGA: 35 City Hall Place. Is a physician. On September 18 and 19 he examined the person of the boy Jules Maitnet and found the rectum in a sore and inflamed condition.~~

OFFICER SMITH: - 6th Precinct Municipal Police. Arrested the prisoner on September 18 at No. 33 Park Street.

From an examination of this case, the complainant's statement, & the affidavit of the defts, it appears true impossible to establish the felonious intent charged in the indictment. The property was immediately restored, & the previous relations of defts & complainant render the explanation of defts very probable, & make the charging of a crime almost impossible.

I accordingly recommend that the bail of defts remain, & be charged that they be discharged on their own recognizance.

 saw a dog which they knew belonged to William Ruddock, William Kennedy who resides at 121st Street near 3rd Avenue a few days previous had asked us to get a dog to put to his dog bitch and we took the dog to said Kennedy for the purpose of having him put to his she dog.
 We had no intention to steal
 the dog mentioned in the indictment and returned him to its owner
 the following day. Edward Graham

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

Both defendants are entirely unknown to me, and did not see either of them or look, take any dog. I have since learned, and I believe it to be true, that both of the defendants are respectable young men.

I further believe that if the dog in question were taken of them or either of them, it was done as a joke.

The dog was even thereafter returned to me. W. W. Ruddock

City & County of New York SS.

Francis G. Dow
being duly sworn & speaking in the first person says. I am an Attorney & Counselor at Law having office at
No 155 Broadway in the City of New York.
I have been acquainted with Andrew J. Green, now under indictment for grand larceny in the second degree & awaiting trial in Part I of the Court of General Sessions in the City of New York, since about January 1 1867. From which time up to August 30th 1867 he was a clerk employed in my office. The said
Green was arrested on my complaint & his indictment was found on my testimony given before the Grand Jury.
During my absence from the city from July 20th to August 30th last the said
Green collected & retained certain moneys on claims which had been placed in my hands for collection & among others the sum of $34⁸⁰ from one Smith. It was on this particular occasion that his indictment was found.
Said Green had been previous to his arrest during my absence, so far as I know a faithful employee, & I had never known or discovered anything inconsistent with entire honesty. He had from time to time collected moneys due me and had always so far as I knew accounted for them and I had entire confidence in him. I do not think that he has ever before been guilty of any offense against the law.

I have seen him several times since his arrest and am satisfied of his deep repentance for his acts. and of his strong determination to live an honest life hereafter. I think the public welfare as well as the future career of Green himself would be best served by suspending the present proceedings against him and affording him an opportunity of removing his errors and of becoming a good and useful citizen. He is a man of more than ordinary intelligence and is capable of being reformed. I trust that he may receive such leniency as the due administration of justice may permit.
