The People v. Alice Lee
County of General Sessions. Part 7
Before Judge Corning. Oct. 16. 1884.

Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree

James Harriman sworn. I was living at the Central Hotel corner of West and Desbrosses St. I saw the defendant on the 30th of Sept I believe on Grand St. I never saw her before. I went with her to a house in Sullivan St. she took me into an alleyway. I had a gold watch and chain and compass and a silk handkerchief in my hip pocket. They were worth $250. When I got on the door step of this house I felt these things in my hip pocket. I felt the defendant's hand in my hip pocket and accused her of stealing my watch. She said she did not have it. Then the Madam of the house and another woman came in and searched the defendant but did not find it. I told them to detain the defendant till I got an officer. I went into the street to get an officer and when I returned Alice Lee had gone away. There was a curtain that separated the defendant and me from the other women. We were laying down at the time I accused her of taking the watch. This was 11 o'clock at night. The officer has the watch. Cross Examined. I am doing nothing at present I was an express Messenger for the National Express Co. for twelve years I paid $200 for the watch in Rutland, Vt. a year ago last April, fifty dollars for the chain and ten dollars for the compass. I had been drinking a little that day, but I was not drunk. I do not think I had five drinks. I often times put my watch in the hip pocket when I go out at night. This house was a basement and it was a filthy, squallid place. The defendant and I got into bed. I gave her half a dollar and I did not pay anything for the room. I don't remember how much money I had about me. I only took my coat off. I unfastened my trousers and got into bed and felt the defendant's hand in my pocket. I went into this room for the purpose of prostitution with her.

John Doherty sworn. I am an officer of the 8th Precinct and arrested the defendant in Watt St. When I was taking her to Court in the morning, having arrested her Oct. 1. at five o'clock for disorderly conduct the complainant was at the desk talking to the Sergeant about 20 minutes to six and he recognized her; she was searched afterwards but nothing was found on her. I did not find the watch, but Officer Moran did. I don't know where it was found only from information.

(Counsel admitted that the watch belonging to the complainant was pawned with this witness) Israel M. Rosenberg sworn and examined for the defence. I am a pawn broker and recieved the watch in question in pledge, but not from the defendant. I recieved it between twelve and one o'clock on the 1st of Oct. I loaned seven dollars on it. It is worth over $200. She said, my husband is a little tight and she wanted the watch for safe keeping. Afterwards, Officer Moran came and asked me if I took a watch in and I told him, yes. The complainant came down and saw the watch and chain and he said it was his. The woman gave the name of Colahan and she said that Mr. Colahan sent her there. Thomas Moran sworn. I am an officer of the 8th precinct. I was before the Magistrate on the 2nd when the defendant and Mary Casey were arraigned. Mary Casey said she did not steal the watch, that she found it under the lounge in this barment 27 1/2 Sullivan St; she said Alice Lee stole it, but said she was not there at the time the watch was stolen. Mary Casey said that she pledged the watch in Canal St. and knew at the time it was stolen; she said she was cleaning up in the morning and found it rolled up in a silk handkerchief under the sofa. The defendant denied having stolen the watch. I have been in this place in Sullivan St

0033

Alice Lee sworn. I lived 44 Grand St. am a married woman, my husband has not lived with me for two or three years. I have two children - one is four and the other is ten years old. I do sewing and general housework for a living. On the night of the 30th of Sept. I met the complainant on South Fifth Ave between Canal and Grand St. The woman who keeps the place had sent for me to do sewing. The complainant asked me if I could not get him a wife. I felt cross, and I said, 'yes, a hundred'; he asked me to go with me and he followed me. I went into 27 1/2 and he followed me. I took the quarter into the woman for the room. I was out two or three minutes when she said he missed his watch. Those people told me to undress myself and he made them pull the bed apart. In the morning the complainant was before Judge Patterson and he was so intoxicated that the Judge would not allow him to speak. I did not take his watch and chain and ~~other~~ compass from him. I was sent to the penitentiary for three months for taking a watch and chain.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The prisoner was remanded for sentence.

Lazard Freres

City and County of New York, ss.

Wm. Gallagher being duly sworn, deposes and says: I reside at No.

Street, in the City of New York. I am a subpoena server in the office of the District Attorney of the City and County of New York. On the 7th day of September 1887,

I called at No. 26 John Street

the alleged place of business of Achille Seligman

the complainant herein, to serve him with the annexed subpoena, and was informed by Mr. Marks a clerk that Mr. Seligman had gone to Paris, France, and had a business established there and that he did not think he would return to this city again.

He said Mr. Blank represented Mr. Seligman by power of attorney, I then inquired for Mr. Blank, and he gave me the same information and said to the best of his belief the said Seligman would not return to this city.

3 Cases.

City and County of New York, ss:

Lazar Lipscher being duly sworn, deposes and says I reside at Number 167 East 75th. Street in the City of New York I am the defendant in three actions now pending against me in this Court upon three indictments charging me with the alleged crime or offence of Grand Larceny; I was indicted in said actions on the 27th. day of October 1884 a period of almost two years ago, since which time no steps as I verily believe have been taken to prosecute said actions a trial; that prior to said indictments (as my Counsel informs me and as the records of the District Attorney's office will show) one of said complaints against me was dismissed by the Grand Jury, but for some reason unbeknown to me was resubmitted to said body and I was compelled to give bail and await trial; that since said time I have been very anxious to have said matters brought to a trial and disposed of; that in or about the month of May 1886 I was surrendered by my sureties who had prior thereto given bail for me and compelled to undergo and endure several days imprisonment before I could obtain new bail and secure my release, which I succeeded in obtaining on the 22nd. day of May 1886.

That since I furnished new bail herein no steps whatever have been taken by the prosecution or the District Attorney as I am informed by my Counsel and verily believe the same to be true, to bring said actions or any or either of them to a trial; I am ready and willing and always have been, to have said matters tried and disposed of at once.

That my business is that of a travelling agent and my business necessarily compels me to go upon business trips ^{as} far west as St. Paul, Minnesota, and I am sometimes absent from the State two or three months, I arrived in this City about three weeks ago and have ^{here} been continuously ever since, and that since my arrival my Counsel informs me that he had called upon the District Attorney's Clerk to have said actions placed upon the calendar and brought to trial but was unable to do so, since my return to the City, one of my sureties stated to me that unless this matter was soon disposed of he would have me surrendered as he did not desire to remain upon the Bond much longer; I am a married man and compelled to earn a livelihood and verily believe that unless these matters are shortly disposed of, I may again be surrendered and thus compelled to undergo further imprisonment, as it would be very difficult for me to procure new sureties after having been surrendered upon two occasions.

That I expect very shortly to leave the City upon a business trip and desire said matters to be disposed of prior to my departure.

Wherefore, I pray that an order may be made placing said actions upon the day calendar of this Court in part two thereof for trial for as early a day as possible to be then and there tried and disposed of or in default thereof that I may be relieved from arrest and the charges brought against me, and for such other and further order and relief as may seem just and proper in the premises.

My dear Sir:

Defendants left yesterday - or, will, to day, for the West, and be absent five weeks. Fearing the Case might be called in the meantime, I called on you, to prevent it.

The indictments were found about two years ago. The Cause seems to be as follows.

First: He was short, on a Memorandum bill of Goods, of $400. about $160. to Achell & Schligman who prosecuted - but the Grand Jury ignored the Bill. He then sued Schligman

0099

for Malicious Prosecution -
and, I believe failed in the action.

Scheligman, induced F Kahn to prosecute. Defendant had obtained goods from the latter on Memorandum, and engaged a person to dispose of a part - instead of doing this he converted them, for which Clapman sued & prosecuted him. There was a balance due Kahn of $500, about. Defendant was also indicted to one Kaufmann.

After Clapman had trouble with Scheligman, the latter induced Kahn and Kaufmann to prosecute him
Criminally. Hence the indictments.

Scheligman is now in Europe and on Release

0 100

Carries on the business, under power of A. H. Kahan is dead - and Lampman & B. Bank want their money.

I advised Defendant not to say - as it might look like an attempt to compound &c.

If these ~~last~~ statements are substantially true, there is little for the People to do.

I thought it best to put the facts (as I have them)
in advance - and shall be happy to see you again in the matter - when defendant returns. He resides 167 East
