The People v. Henry Wilson (Court of General Sessions Before Recorder Smythe Sept. 17 1880. Indictment for felonious assault and battery.)

Louis Gerard, sworn and examined, testified I am living in Greenwich Ave. now. I lived in 13th St. at the time this happened. I am a chaser by profession and worked for Tiffany for fifteen years. I never saw the prisoner before the 15th of August. I was coming through James St. with my wife on my arm between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and while going along with my wife I turned round to speak to her and I received a blow in my eye. Wilson stood in front of me and looked at me to see where he cut me. At the same time he either wiped or closed the knife and ran. The knife was a single blade and had a black handle. He cut me in the eye and in the nose. I should judge the wound was an inch or an inch and a quarter long. The blow broke my nose and closed my eyes. My right eye for three days and disabled me from work nine days. My family doctor Denah came to see me twice. I was first taken to the Chamber St. hospital by an officer after having first taken me to the station house. He arrested the prisoner a day after the assault. Did you do anything to Wilson? I never spoke to the man. Never looked at him. Cross Examined. At the time of the assault I was living in 13th St. between Fifth and Sixth aves. The assault took place corner of James and Oak St. The prisoner stuck the blow from behind and walked in front of me to see where he had cut me. I never saw the man before that night and had no conversation with him. And without any provocation from you at all he comes right up and deliberately cuts you in the face with a knife three inches in depth? Yes sir. I was coming through Batavia St. I had been in Brooklyn with my wife; we came over Fulton ferry. How did you come into James St? We were coming up that way to take a Second Avenue car at R.E.C. slip; we changed our minds. My wife was troubled in walking with a corn. We had a notion of going to Catherine Market and changed our minds when we got to Chamber St. Were you arrested that day and locked up and fined ten dollars? No sir, I never had that pleasure yet. We did not go to Catherine Market; we got our articles in a grocery store. I cannot say what street, but it was the second St. from the water. Were you intoxicated at the time? No sir. This cut was three inches deep; the surgeon at the hospital told me so; he probed it. That is the knife I was stabbed with (knife shown). I was disabled nine days. Thomas J. O'Brien sworn and examined. I am a police officer connected with the Fourth precinct. I have known the prisoner six or eight months. I arrested him on the 19th of August in consequence of information given to me. I searched him and found those two knives. I was informed by one of the special duty men that they wanted "Whitey", he goes by the name of Whitey, he is a wagon thief.

 I accused him when I arrested him of stabbing a man carrier of James and Oak Sts; he denied all knowledge of the affair, and the next morning when arraigned at the Courts he admitted striking this man with his hand; he denied having the knife on the following morning I noticed the prisoner's knuckle was cut, all burst open; he showed it to the Judge; the prisoner admitted striking the complainant with his left hand; the Magistrate said as if the cut might have been ten days old. I found no blood on the knives. I think it was the middle finger of the right hand that was bruised, it was seemingly an old cut. I have seen cuts before in my experience.
 I have been an officer four years and two months. I could not see any blood on the knives.
 Henry Wilson, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I live at 125 Monroe St with my mother and father. I remember the 15th of August when Louis Gerard did you catch him with a knife?
 No sir, I merely hit him with my fist. I had no knife in my possession of that day. I had a friend who was sick and I was walking the street with him. This Gerard insulted him and knocked him down and was kicking him in the street. His friend of mine asked me to help him. I went over and asked him to let my friend alone. He asked me if I was wanting for fight? He made a blow at me and I struck him back. Cross examined the complainant had a quarrel with him. My friend's name was John Hardy; he was in Court and went out. I do not know what was the matter with him; he was very sick and could not walk. Hardy was not doing anything. Gerard came up and knocked him down.

0702

 Hardy was talking to me and Gerard hit him first and kicked him in the stomach. Hardy might have done something to Gerard before that.
 I did not hear him say anything in my presence.
 Was there anybody that saw that kicking except you? Yes sir, there is another young man, his name is Edward Brown. Did you carry a knife with you that day? No, I did not have any knife.
 There is the knuckle I hit him with; there is the cut, it is healed up. How many blows did you strike? One blow, I struck him in the corner of the eye; my knuckle came in the corner of the eye, and he fell down. I was in front of him when I hit him; he was going to hit me, he did make one blow for me; he asked me was I looking for fight? I had those two knives in my pocket. I never use them. I carried them out with me that night. They were lying in the house. I did not know they were any good, I put them in my pocket; they were lying on the mantel piece in the house. Sophia Wilson sworn and examined testified the prisoner is my son. I saw these two knives [knives shown] they were on the mantel piece. I saw him take them from the mantel piece on a Wednesday or Thursday in August. I could not say what part of the month. William Barton sworn. I live at 22 Catherine St and am a cane maker. I have known the prisoner for a five years off and on, he has been in my employ. I believe him to be a hard working, industrious fellow. I never knew him to be in trouble before. I never knew him to take a glass of beer. Louis Gerard recalled. I did not strike or kick anybody on that occasion before I was stabbed. I am no fighting character. Did you have any quarrel with anybody in the neighborhood of Humes and Dak etc. before you were cut? No sir. The moment I was cut my wife was standing three feet from him. I spoke to a young man named Hardy before I was cut. I asked him what he abused my wife for & he used language which is unfit to be repeated here in Court, he called her a dirty bitch. I could not do anything, for he was in the yard next door. I saw him in Court this morning. I could not reach him when he was in his own yard as there was a fence between us. At the time he was abusing my wife I was in the hall way of the house 20 Batavia St. I heard Hardy call her a dirty bitch, a slut, and such names.

You can look over from the stoop into his yard. I stood on the stoop alongside of my wife. I was 12 feet from him at the time. I got no nearer to him than that. We went out in the street with the intention of getting away from there; we got to the corner of Oak and James Sts. when this assault took place. Did you see Hardy at any time between the time you saw him on the back stoop and the time that this assault was made upon the prisoner? Yes sir I did. I saw him in the act of running away with a knife in his hand, corner of Oak and James Sts. my wife pursuing him. That is the first I saw of him after leaving the house. My wife was three feet from me in the act of pursuing Hardy. She started to run. I called her back and told her to come from that neighborhood. At the time the blow was struck Hardy was running away with a knife in his hand. I did not beat, kick or strike Hardy. I was not near enough to strike him. I made a remark to my wife, turned around and saw him in the act of raising his knife in his hand and he ran. The prisoner was not there then; he just came around the corner of Oak St. while the other man was running away he struck me a blow. How long a time elapsed between Hardy's running away and this man striking you? Perhaps one minute. I stood still at the time to see if my wife would catch this other man that was running. I was calling her back at the time the blow was struck. This man was not there during the previous trouble whatever; he came from a different neighborhood. I had no trouble with anybody. I had no trouble with Mr. Hardy. Dora Girard, sworn and examined. I am the wife of the last witness. I was with my husband on the 18th of August. I went to the corner of Water and Oliver Sts. to a grocery store where I used to deal. I got some groceries there. From that store I went to Batavia St. to see a friend; her name is Mrs. Robinson. I had occasion to go out in the yard and my husband stood in the hallway. The prisoner and Hardy were in the yard, the next yard to us. I was going out, and they abused and insulted me; they called me a dirty bitch. My husband said, "Come on and don't mind it; come out of here; we will get off and take the cars home. We were going home, and on the corner of Roosevelt and Oak Sts. this Hardy ran for us with a knife in his hand; it had a small blade, and somebody said, "Oh!" like that. So I turned back and I saw Hardy. I don't know whether he meant it for me or for my husband. I hallooed, "Murder, watch." Hardy ran and the prisoner stood by his side. My husband never noticed or said a word to him. He stood still. I kept looking at him for a long time. My husband said, "Let us go in here, it is a very hard place." At that time he came from behind and hit him a blow; he stood still looking at him. I saw something black in his hand; he was wiping or shutting it at the time. Did your husband on that occasion knock down Hardy and kick him? No, I did not; he never lifted a hand; he was not near enough to strike. Cross Examined. I cannot say it was a knife I saw in his hand, but I saw something like a blade. I have been married to Mr.

Grand two years and a half. I live now in Greenwich Avenue. I forget the number. I am living there a month. I occupy the whole floor I belong to Brooklyn and I do not know exactly the streets around New York. After this blow was struck I was frightened and excited. My husband was not drunk; he is not a drinking man. I sometimes take a glass or two of beer. I had nothing to drink that day. I have seen the prisoner around James St. I have lived there with my mother-in-law and my husband for about a year. I have never had any trouble with the prisoner or with Hardy. I never spoke to them. I went down to see Mary Roberts in Batavia St. I don't know that she keeps a house of ill fame. I know Daniel Foley who served a term of four years in the State prison.

In this case the only testimony against the defendant is the state-have pleaded guilty under these circumstances there could not be a conviction in my opinion I think I will very be discharged. Perhaps not.

Martin Harrison
of No. 91 Madison Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the 22nd day of August 18 80 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent, And from deponent's person.

the following property viz: One gold watch and gold chain attached, of the value together of Ten hundred dollars, one gold finger ring of the value of Ten dollars, and one diamond cluster breast pin of the value of One hundred and seventy five dollars, said property being all of the value of Ten hundred and eighty five dollars and being of the value of Dollars the property of this deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Richard Wilson (nowhere) for the reason following, to wit: That at about the hour of 3 o'clock on the morning of said day deponent was in the Bowery near Canal Street, and said watch was then carried in the left coat pocket of the coat then upon deponent's person and was fastened to said coat by said chain. That said ring was then worn upon the little finger of deponent's right hand and said diamond pin was fastened in the shirt front of the shirt then upon deponent's person.

That deponent was then drunk, but was sober enough to see that the said defendant and a woman who afterwards gave her name as Hattie Wilson and said she was the wife of said defendant were following deponent about from place to place. That about 1 o'clock on the afternoon of said day deponent found himself in a lumber yard at the foot of Gouverneur Street and found that all of the above described property had been taken, stolen and carried away from deponent's possession and person.

That thereafter said woman, who is known to deponent by the alias of "the clipper," caused the return of said watch, chain and ring to deponent. That she was arrested and discharged by Justice Smith deponent refusing to testify against her. That after her discharge the defendant, Richard Wilson, now her husband, confessed that he, Richard, had induced deponent's said demand men to play the lawyer who defended the said woman called "the clipper." That as this deponent was followed by the said defendant on the morning of the larceny and as the said defendant admitted passing the property stolen from deponent, this deponent therefore charges him with the larceny of said property.
