Hon. A. B. Martin, Dist. Ctty.
Dear Sir. —

At your request I have examined Henry J. Dawdle, now in the City Prison, as to his mental condition.

I have not been able to discover any trace of insanity in him at the present time although there is a history of two years confinement in an Asylum some ten years ago.

His actions of his mind and his conduct are not those of an insane person. He has not a strong mental capacity and is of that nature to bear confinement badly. Under restraint symptoms of melancholia might appear. As he is now I believe he is competent to conduct a defense.

The People
vs.
Henry L. Dowde.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Gildersleeve.

October 5, 1887.

Indictment for assault in the first degree.

John Glynn sworn and examined, testified: I live 407 East 16th Street in this city, I was here on the 8th of July, I saw the prisoner that evening at about 9.45 on Second Avenue and 16th Street near the Park, I never saw him before that night, I was alone and he was alone. I left my house at half past nine and walked through 16th Street to Livingston Place, through Livingston Place to 16th Street and through 16th St. to Second Avenue and walking up Second Avenue I had my hands in my pockets looking down, never thinking of anything, when opposite 16th Street by the gate leading to the Park the defendant jumped out and says, "Ah", like that, not another word, and the first thing I was caught here on the neck and the necktie and collar cut. Then he ran along Second Avenue and down 16th Street through Livingston Place into 16th Street and going through 16th Street just off Livingston Place he threw the instrument away, whatever it was, I did not see the instrument at all and could not tell what it was, whether a knife, razor or anything else, but from the appearance of the tie and from the appearance of the cut it must have been a razor, nothing else could do it. Where was he before he stabbed you, on the street or under a stoop? He was on the street coming down. I never said a word to him, he stabbed me in the neck. There is the tie and the way it is cut, there is the collar, it glanced off the collar, the pin was lost, I was not seriously wounded by the stab, I do not believe there is a scar on my neck by this time, the cut glanced off, it must have been made by some sharp instrument; after he stabbed me I ran after him, I did not catch him, he was caught by parties in 10th Street, he was brought to First Avenue and 16th Street where the officer came up and brought him to the Station House.

Cross Examined. This was about a quarter to ten at night, it was very dark; I had no quarrel with the defendant and as far as I know there was no reason why he should have committed the assault if he did commit it. There was no crowd running until he reached the other side of First Avenue and then there was a crowd collected and followed, I caught a glance of the face of the defendant and from what I saw of his face I am sure he is the one; when the defendant was captured there was quite a crowd running, I could have picked the defendant out of a crowd of twenty or thirty people as the person who assaulted me, I was pretty well excited, I did not notice whether there was any lamp near where I was assaulted, I would know the defendant again if I saw him in twenty years; there was nothing to attract my attention to him before I was stabbed.

Antone A. Straussner sworn. I am an officer of the 18th precinct and arrested the defendant on the night that this alleged stabbing took place, I arrested him on First Avenue and 16th Street, the complainant had hold of him at the time; the complainant said the defendant stabbed him and he wanted him arrested. I took the defendant across the street on the other corner and searched him to see if there was any knife upon him and could not find any; I asked him what he stabbed this man for he said a little, that is all he said, I took him to the Station House; there was quite a little crowd there; that is all I know about it.

Henry J. Dowde sworn and examined in his own behalf. I live at 88 Henry Street in this city and I remember the time of this occurrence as stated by this boy. I was walking down 15th Street and I heard the cry of thief and I ran down with the crowd, the crowd was running and I ran with them, I ran to see what the matter was, I got a little way down the street and the officer came and he caught hold of me and this boy said I stabbed him, I did not stab him, I had never seen him up to that time before, I had a small pen knife which I always carry the officer took it from me at the Station House, it was this same officer that arrested and searched me, I deny stabbing or assaulting this boy in any manner, I know nothing about it.

Cross Examined. I was going home this night, the complainant said to the officer I stabbed him, the complainant did not have hold of me when the officer came up, I have been in the Tombs three months, I have been out of the Flatbush Insane Asylum five years, I am not in very good health, I used to sell brushes which I bought of Mr Baron in Chamber Street.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.
