City and County of New York ss.

Charles Sears of No. 350 Washington Street in the City of New York, being duly sworn deposes and says;

That on the 10th. day of October, 1885, he purchased of a person in Charge of the Store of Peter & Van Riper & Co. acting in the Capacity of Clerk & Salesman at No. Street, in said City, place of business, eight tubs of oleomargarine. That said oleomargarine had the appearance of and resembled natural butter, and was made and manufactured in imitation of natural butter produced from pure unadulterated milk or cream from the same.

That deponent took from said tubs a true and fair sample of the article so purchased and contained therein, and delivered the same to Edward G. Love, a chemist of No. 122 Bowery in the City of New York, and requested him to analyze the same and ascertain the component parts thereof.

That thereafter said Edward G. Love informed deponent that he had analyzed the said sample pursuant to deponent's request, and found that it was not natural butter produced from pure unadulterated milk or cream from the same, but was manufactured out of animal fats and substances not produced from unadulterated milk or cream from the same, which statement of said chemist deponent verily believes to be true.

Deponent further says that said oleomargarine was not branded in accordance with the law in such case made and provided.
