My dear Sir:-

Yours with writ of Habeas Corpus received this morning. I wired you about noon to-day that I did not have the John Reilly here. There have been no convicts transferred here from Sing Sing since November last. There were fifty sent to Clinton about two weeks ago, and if Reilly was convicted on February 9th, 1892 he would most probably have been transferred to Clinton Prison at Dannemora ~~in that batch of fifty.~~

I return you the writ, and would suggest that inasmuch as you are short for time that perhaps if you wired Warden Thayer, and if he has Reilly in charge, he probably would send him down with an officer, and you could serve the writ upon him in New York.

I should be happy at any time to assist you in any matters within my power, and would most willingly have accepted service by mail as you suggested.

I would call your attention, however, to this fact, that where a prisoner is taken from a prison, to a court, that there is no fund to pay the expenses of the prisoner or the officer taking the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Kate Hughes (now here) for the following reasons to wit:

At about the hour of 11:30 P.M. on the above date, deponent met defendant and accompanied her to the saloon in the premises known as the southeast corner of Fiftieth Street
