CITY OF New York COUNTY OF New York } ss.

Anthony Lemusto being duly sworn further deposes and says, that on the 14th day of December, 1883, aforesaid, he called at the place of business of the said Herman Wunder aforesaid, at the said premises 194 William Street and there purchased the said paper, ticket and instrument, purporting to be what is commonly called a lottery as annexed to foregoing affidavit, under the following circumstances to wit: Deponent there saw the said Herman Wunder and had conversation with him in substance as follows.

Deponent said, shewed the said Wunder a registered letter receipt for a letter which deponent mailed to said Wunder on or about the 7th day of November 1883 at the New York Post office registered. The said Wunder said that is right the letter was received at this office, and deponent said you boys says he gave it to you and you answered it and the hand writing upon the envelope in which the reply was sent is the hand writing of yourself. To which the said Wunder replied, that is right, that the letter for which the receipt called for he received, and the writing was his. Deponent further says, that in its reply to the said registered letter mailed as aforesaid at the New York Post office, November 7th
