being duly sworn

deposes and says, that on the 25th day of November 1890 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

One Suit of mens Clothes to the value of sixty five dollars $65⁰⁰/₁₀₀

the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Arthur Brown in the following manner to wit:— Deponent came to the residence of deponent at aforesaid premises and told deponents wife that deponent had sent him (defendant) for said suit of clothes. Said property was given to defendant deponents wife believing that defendant had been sent for said

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

George Brown

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A ROOM TO BE USED FOR GAMBLING PURPOSES, committed as follows:

The said

George Brown

late of the Eighteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the eleventh day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid with force and arms, unlawfully did keep a certain room in a certain building, there situate, to be used for gambling purposes, to wit: to be used for the purpose of therein conducting a certain gambling game commonly called "policy," where money and property was dependent upon the result, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and the dignity.

SECOND COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

George Brown

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A ROOM TO BE USED FOR THE PURPOSE OF SELLING LOTTERY POLICIES THEREIN, committed as follows:

The said

George Brown

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain room, in a certain building there situate, to be used for the purpose of therein selling and offering to sell what are commonly called Lottery Policies, and divers writings, papers, and documents in the nature of bets, wagers and insurances upon the drawing or drawn numbers of certain public and private lotteries, and of therein endorsing and using books and other documents for the purpose of enabling divers persons to sell and offer to sell lottery policies and other such writings, papers and documents, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—

George Brown

of the CRIME OF SELLING TO ANOTHER WHAT IS COMMONLY KNOWN AS A LOTTERY POLICY, committed as follows:

The said George Brown

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to

one Robert D. McCully

a certain paper, instrument and writing, commonly called a Lottery Policy, which said paper, instrument and writing, called a Lottery Policy, is as follows, that is to say:

B. all day
Dec 11=
19. 31. 43 2/10.=

(a more particular description of which said instrument and writing so commonly called a Lottery Policy is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

FOURTH COUNT.—

George Brown

of the CRIME OF SELLING A PAPER AND WRITING, IN THE NATURE OF A BET AND WAGER UPON THE DRAWN NUMBERS OF A LOTTERY, committed as follows:

The said George Brown

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to

a certain paper and writing, in the nature of a bet and wager upon the drawn numbers of a certain lottery, the same being a scheme for the distribution of property by chance among persons who had paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for such chance (a more par-

B. all day

19. 31. 43 $10 =

(a more particular description of which said paper and writing is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

FIFTH COUNT.—

George Brown of the CRIME OF SELLING A WRITING PAPER AND DOCUMENT IN THE NATURE OF
 OF AN INSURANCE UPON THE DRAWING OF A LOTTERY, committed as follows:

The said

George Brown
 late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: On the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to one

Robert B. McCully a certain paper, writing and document in the nature of an insurance upon the drawing of a certain lottery, the same being a scheme for the distribution of property by chance among certain persons who had paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for such chance (a more particular description of which said lottery is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), which said paper, writing and document is as follows, that is to say :

B. all day

19. 31. 43 $10 =

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain room, in a certain building there situate, to be used for the purpose of therein selling and offering to sell what are commonly called Lottery Policies, and divers writings, papers, and documents in the nature of bets, wagers and insurances upon the drawing or drawn numbers of certain public and private lotteries, and of therein endorsing and using books and other documents for the purpose of enabling divers persons to sell and offer to sell lottery policies and other such writings, papers and documents, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

George Brown of the CRIME OF SELLING TO ANOTHER WHAT IS COMMONLY KNOWN AS A LOTTERY POLICY, committed as follows:

The said

George Brown
late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to one Robert B. McCully

a certain paper, instrument and writing, commonly called a Lottery Policy, which said paper, instrument and writing, called a Lottery Policy, is as follows, that is to say:

Lottery Policy is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

FOURTH COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

George Brown
of the CRIME OF SELLING A PAPER AND WRITING, IN THE NATURE OF A BET AND WAGER UPON THE DRAWN NUMBERS OF A LOTTERY, committed as follows:

The said

George Brown
late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year
aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to a certain paper and writing, in the nature of a bet and wager upon the drawn numbers of a certain lottery, the same being a scheme for the distribution of property by chance among persons who had paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for such chance (a more par-

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

against

John S. Brown

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

John S. Brown

(Sec. 822, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

The said

John S. Brown

late of the 5th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty-second day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

John S. Brown

(Section 835, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the twenty-second day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in his said house, for his own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment, further accuse the said

John S. Brown

(Section 322
Pennl Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said

John S. Brown

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the twenty-second day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for his own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in his said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

fifty dollars

the property of deponent and that this deponent

carried away by William Brown (read here) from the fact that deponent was on the 4th Avenue, when deponent had said watch attached to a gold chain in the left hand pocket of the coat then worn upon deponent's person. That said watch was stolen from deponent's person.

Deponent is now informed by Edward J. Jones, one of the Central office Police that for the hour of about 1 o'clock in the night of said 4th day of December 1890 he arrested said defendant with a gold watch in his possession, which lawful money of the United States

$70⁰⁰ the property of G Margraf and Son of which firm deponent is a member

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by William Butler (now here) in the following manner to wit: Deponent says that defendant was in his employ as a driver that he sent the defendant with a bill of furniture to Brooklyn and to collect paid amount from Henry Harden. That defendant failed to return to the store of deponent and that the truck that defendant was employed to drive was abandoned and was taken charge of by the Police. Deponent is informed by Henry Harden that he paid said amount to the defendant. Deponent therefor charges the defendant with having taken carried away and stolen said money and says that he is held to answer George Margraf

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE, OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

against

William Butler

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse William Butler of the CRIME OF GRAND LARCENY IN THE second DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said William Butler late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 11th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in the day - time of the same day, divers promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of a number and denomination to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, for the payment of and of the value of seventy

$70.00 dollars; divers other promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as Bank Notes), of a number and denomination to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, for the payment of and of the value of seventy dollars; divers United States Silver Certificates of a number and denomination to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, of the value of seventy dollars; divers United States Gold Certificates of a number and denomination to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, of the value of seventy dollars; divers coins of a number, kind and denomination to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, of the value of seventy dollars of the goods, chattels and personal property of one George Margraf then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
