PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,
VERSUS

Walter F. Holbrook

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I am informed that the defendant Walter F. Holbrook is of good family and has heretofore never been arrested and is now employed by the Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph Company in this City.

I believe that said defendant ought not to be further prosecuted as ~~we~~ have had no loss and think the opportunity ought be given him to redeem himself and to lead an honest life.

I am informed ~~by~~ his friends that they believe he was at the time laboring under a fit of temporary insanity, and did not consciously commit ~~the crime~~.

I would further state that I have never intended to be Complainant in the above case. I was summoned to identify the defendant and have supposed that I was simply a witness.

Henry G. Atwater, being duly sworn, says: In about the month of August 1884 I was retained as counsel for Walter F. Holbrook who had been charged in a police court with an attempt at grand larceny in attempting to steal certain bonds of the value of $62.50 in the possession of Messrs. Kountze Bros. bankers at 120 Broadway. The complainant was Mr. Edward Bearse who was the cashier for Kountze Bros. In the police Court the defendant pleaded guilty of the charge and when I was retained as counsel for him he was imprisoned in the toms. Shortly after I was retained as counsel for him he procured bail and was indicted for forgery in the second degree upon which he gave bail and has ever since then been at large on bail. Shortly after he gave bail I communicated with Messrs. Kountze Bros. and satisfied them that the offence was the first committed by the defendant and that he had always been a young man of good character and was well connected and they thereupon agreed that the charge should not be pressed. In accordance with this Mr. Bearse their cashier who was the complainant, filed with the District Attorney a request that the charge should not be pressed.

I then procured affidavits and statements showing the defendant's good character, reputation and mode of life and presented them to Mr. Olney who was then District Attorney and had an interview with him in which I stated the facts of the case and Mr. Olney then told me -this was some time in September 1884- that he thought that the prosecution should not be pressed and that he would either apply to the court to enter a nolle prosequi or allow the defendant to plead guilty and have sentence suspended. I then urged upon Mr. Olney that under the circumstances the defendant should not be called upon to plead at all, but that a nolle prosequi should be entered and he agreed to consider whether he would consent to this and that in the meantime the defendant should not be called upon to plead.

After this interview I heard no more of the case until a few days ago when the defendant's bondsman brought me a notice requiring him to produce the defendant to plead on the 13th inst. The defendant appeared on the 13th inst. and upon my advice pleaded "Not Guilty" to the charge of forgery ⁽²¹⁾ and it was my judgment that the facts would not sustain such a charge.

I stated the case to Mr. Davis, the assistant district attorney in charge of the matter and he agreed to give me an opportunity to see Mr. Olney and get some statement or certificate from him in regard to what was done during his term of office before the trial should be pressed. I have accordingly seen Mr. Olney and gone over the case with him again and produced to him additional affidavits and statements showing that the defendant, since he was indicted has lead an honest and industrious life and is doing so now, and in view of all these facts I urge that a nolle prosequi should be entered.

During a portion of the time since the defendant was indicted I have had some personal knowledge of what was being done by him, as for about a year prior to September 1886 he was employed as a stenographer and telegraph operator in the office of John M. Moore and company, brokers at 78 Broadway who were clients of mine during that period and in the course of my business with them I was frequently in their office and saw the defendant at work there and Mr. Moore the senior member of that firm told me at the time that he was a faithful and satisfactory clerk and I know that they employed him up to the time of their failure in September 1886.

Walter F. Holbrook, being duly sworn, says: since August 1884 I have been engaged as follows, all the time in the City of New York, to wit: About October 1884 I took a position as telegraph operator with the Postal Telegraph Company and continued in that position for about ten months when I obtained a position as telegraph operator and stenographer with H. D. Kyle & Co. stock brokers at 58 New Street where I remained for about nine months when the firm failed and I was obliged to secure another position. I then obtained a position with John M. Moore and Company stock-brokers at 78 Broadway, as telegraph operator and stenographer and remained with them for about a year and up to September 1886 when the firm failed and I was thrown out of a place. Since then I have devoted almost my entire attention to art work in its various branches- newspaper illustrations comprising the greater amount of the work. I have a desk in the office of the Galvano Type & Engraving Company, No. 80 Beekman Street, New York City, where I work and carry on my business. I am making a living for myself and wife. I am making now about twelve dollars per week but shall make more when I have had more experience and can work faster, as I have all the work I can do.

On June 2, 1887, I was married and since then have lived with my wife at the home of her parents at Woodside, Long Island and am now residing there. I annex some certificates from persons for whom I have worked during the past three years.

regarded him as singularly innocent

good. He delighted, apparently,
to be with me and to attend
the Church Services public perform a duty imposed by the Church, was courteous in deportment, and obliging in deed. So far had he obtained my confidence that I appointed him an Assistant Elder, and, being a stenographer, nominated him for Church Secretary, & made him my private Secretary. I cordially, and in all good faith, commended him to the First National Bank as a competent and honorable young man. I was as much shocked on hearing of ~~the~~ charge as I could have been concerning anyone of my acquaintance. I would have great hopes, that, if relieved from his present situation, he would retrieve any lost reputation by repairing any injured character. Orphaned, I feel a certain fatherliness toward him, which would be greatly afflicted should he be imprisoned and would be grievously disappointed, if released, he should prove unworthy of his liberty. } Respy

The Frank Walter Holbrook
has been in the employ of this Co for the past year and a half as telegraph operator.
He has been in my office
since last July and has given entire satisfaction. His age is the only fault I know
in him, being a fine competent operator and having a good general
idea of the calling of his position with his intelligence and ~~particular~~ qualify him for a better position

him one of the best of boys and quite

City and County of New York ss.

Walter D. Holbrook, being duly sworn says:

I am now 23 years of age. I was born at Deposit, Sullivan County, N.Y., where my father was employed as Station Agent on the Erie Railway. I lived at various places in Sullivan Co., until I was about 8 years of age, my family moving from one place to another, according as the position on the road, which my father filled, required his presence. In this way my family lived success-fully at Deposit, Cohecton, and Port Jervis, my father all the time being employed in various positions by the Erie Railway. At some places he was Station Agent, at others Train Dispatcher, and at others Tele-graph Operator. When I was about 8 years of age my father obtained a position in the employ of the Delaware Lackawanna & Western Ry. Co., as Station Agent at Bergen Tunnel, and then moved his family to Jersey City.

0665

After my family moved to Jersey City I attended school there for a short time, and then entered the employ of the Delaware Lackawanna and West. R.R. Co., and was employed under Mr. C. A. Stotaling, Coal Agent of that Company, at foot of 15th St. Jersey City. I was first employed as messenger, and afterward as Telegraph Operator, having learned the art of Telegraphy while working as messenger. After working under Mr. Stotaling sometime I was able to secure a better position with the New Jersey Midland Railway Co., and was employed as Telegraph Operator under Mr. F. D. Cannon, at Exchange Place Jersey City. After being there sometime I returned to the employ of the Delaware Lack. and Western Ry. under Mr. Stotaling. I was with the A. L. & W. Ry Co. under Mr. Stotaling in all, about six years, and about three years with the New Jersey Midland Ry Co. I commenced as messenger at $12. a month, and as Operator was advanced to $20. and afterwards, to $40. a month.

0666

I left the Q. & W. Ry Co. to accept a better position with the Western Union Telegraph Co., by whom I was employed at 195 Broadway New York under manager A. S. Downer. In this employment I received at first $55. per month, and afterwards $65. per month. I remained in their employ about two years and a half. I then received an offer from the American Union Telegraph Co. to go to Pittsburg Pa. at a salary of $80. per month, which I accepted, remaining there only two weeks. I then returned to New York, in the employ of the same Co., under the management of Mr. W. J. Dealy, where I remained until the consolidation of that Co. with the Western Union Tel. Co. was effected. An offer was made me by the Mutual Union Tel. Co. 135 Broadway, this City, at a salary of $90. per month, which I accepted, and continued there about one year under manager A. H. Seymour. While working at the desk I studied, and acquired a knowledge of short-hand. From there I went with the Postal Telegraph Co. 49 Broad=way, where I remained about six months, leaving there I secured a position as Operator with Mr. A. B. Canoll, Grain Broker, 42nd Broadway City. I stayed there until he failed - Was then employed by the First National Bank, as Telegraph Op'r. and Stenographic Correspondent, receiving a salary of $1.000 per year, and dinner furnished. I remained with them until I was arrested on this charge. I was bailed on Monday, the 18th of August, and on Saturday of the same week I obtained a position as Operator with the Bankers and Merchants Telegraph Co. 187 Bway. City. I have been there since, and am there now.

0667

In addition to Short-hand and Telegraphy I also execute Portraits, in Oil, and Clayon. This work I do early in the morning and late at night.

Up to the time of my father's death, which occurred about 5 years ago, I lived at home, my mother having died a year previous to the death of my father. Since my father's death the family has been kept together. I have five brothers, all living at home. my Aunt keeping house for us. The eldest brother is employed as Operator in the office of the N.Y. Times. City. Another is in the employ of the Del. Lack. & West. Ry. Co. Another is Bookkeeper for Sturges and Wescott 192 West St. - another is with G. S. & L. Haught, Broad St. & Exchange Pl., another with Mr Robert Fair 161 Chambers St. -

Until my arrest in the case I have never been arrested for any cause, nor charged with any offence against the law.

I annex hereto some letters of recommendation that I have received from various persons under whom I have worked, given to me at various times on which they bear date.

Subscribed and sworn to {

Court of General Sessions
for the City and County of New York

The People of the State of New York
against
Lena Hothfelder

City and County of New York & C.

Lena Hothfelder being duly sworn says
That she is the defendant above named. That when only seventeen years in the month of May last she left her parents home, and was married to one Charles Hothfelder and lived 2 with him. That very shortly after the said marriage the said Charles Hothfelder began to abuse, and ill treat deponent, and his treatment subsequently became so bad, and brutal, that after two months cohabitation deponent could bear it no longer, and in consequence left her said husband. That having married against the wishes of her parents deponent did not wish to return to her father's home, and as she was desirous of gaining her own livelihood went to service and entered the 3 prosecutor's employment as a domestic servant. That while in such employment the articles mentioned in the indictment were left exposed and deponent while looking at them was overcome and in a moment of weakness yield to temptation and took them

0697

That the said Articles have been restored to the prosecutor, and this is the first offence deponent ever committed, and the first time she was ever confined in a prison. That deponent feels the great disgrace, and degradation she is now enduring by her loss of character for honesty, and the long imprisonment she has undergone in the Tombs prison. - That deponent humbly and respectfully asks the Court mercifully to deal leniently with her and that sentence be suspended so that in case she should again do wrong she may be punished upon this charge.

That if this leniency is extended to deponent she faithfully promises that by good conduct she will strive to redeem her lost character and endeavor by her behavior to obtain an honest livelihood in the future. That deponent has been informed the owner of the goods mentioned in the indictment has no desire individually to press the charge against her, but that his wife is the one who is moving in the prosecution. That deponent's parents reside at 318 First Street Brooklyn E.D. and her father earns a respectable living by working in a Sugar House in that neighborhood where he has been employed for sometime, and if she is allowed to return to her parents they are in a position to keep her.
