My full name is Winfield M. Thompson & I am 24 years of age and reside at No. 60 West Twenty-fifth Street. On October 14, 1893, as a reporter of the New York Press, I visited the building No. 203 Broadway, New York City. I carefully inspected the street floor, and found it to be a saloon, with a pool table at the rear of the room. I saw no bed on this floor. I next visited the top floor where I saw a number of men seated at two tables playing with cards and chips. I saw two doors opening from the room, and found that one led into a water-closet, the other into a small room in the South-west corner where a number of coats were hung. I saw no bed on this floor. After leaving this room I descended one flight of stairs, the same I had come up, to the landing on the floor below. I tried to open a door leading from the landing, but found it locked. In one panel of the door I saw a square hole covered on the inside by which a view of the interior was cut off. The cover slid upward when pricked by a penknife blade. Enough light came from the windows facing the Banquet to enable me to see the interior of the room. I saw no beds there.

On October 17, 1893, at about 3.30 o'clock p.m., I again visited this place, raised the slide in the door with my knife, and looked in. The room was light enough for me to see an upturned table diagonally opposite the door on the left, and near the front windows a yellow settee. The floor was strewn with waste-paper. I saw no beds in the room.

On October 23, 1893 I visited this same apartment, and saw a number of cots which had been placed therein & a man who told me he was Bartholomew Brickley, stated to me that he had kept a lodging house there for four months,

 and that he would swear
 to that effect.

Report of operative J.M.B. :
 on : New York, Tuesday, October 24th., 1893.
 Case No. 930.

In compliance with instructions I to-day left the Agency and went up to the building at No. <sup>203</sup>~~22~~ Bowery to endeavor to get a lodging there if possible. I found this place was occupied on the ground floor by a saloon. On the first floor over the saloon the outside awnings over the windows were down and I could see just a faint glimmer of light. I entered the place and had some drinks at the bar and played two games of pool in the rear room with two men, both of whom I am satisfied are staying upstairs. One, who is supposed to be from Boston, is about 26 years of age, 5ft.10in.tall, or a little over, has sandy hair, clean shaven face, blue eyes and light complexion; respectably dressed in a black suit of clothes with double breasted coat. The other man is about 28 years of age, 5ft.8in.tall, weighs perhaps 155 lbs., has sandy hair and mustache, light complexion, blue eyes, is well built, full faced; and wears a double breasted black suit something like the other man's. When we stopped playing pool the young fellow told me that I could not get a bed up-stairs for $100. Everyone in the place is extremely fly and it was hard to get information. I went out at 11:30 p.m. and looked all over the front but could see no sign announcing there were lodgings inside. I returned inside and walked up the stairs, or was attempting to do so, when a man stopped me who seemed to be on guard there and asked me where I was going. I told him I was going up-stairs to get a bed but he answered that they were all full there and had no beds. I told him a friend of mine had sent me down here but he only repeated they did not have a bed there. I sat down and had a talk with a man who said he was staying at No.69 Bowery, which I afterwards learned was true. Thinking, however, that he was connected with the people here I talked to him about repeating, saying I was open for a job. He informed me that down at No.69 Bowery where he was staying was the place for me to go. He said a man staying there had told him that he knew a man who had registered from this place seventeen times. He knows one man who has registered for only twenty-five cents. He described the man to me who had told him about this and I will know him again by this I think. The policeman on post hung out around the door pretty steadily and was very intimate with the men hanging out there and all hands seemed to be on the lookout. I remained around this place until 2:00 a.m. but was unable to get up-stairs. I will mention that many of these men hanging around this place seem to be from out of town.

Respectfully Submitted,

L. Lawrence

THE PEOPLE
vs.
BARTHOLOMEW BUCKLEY.

Hon. John R. Fellows,
District Attorney.

Dear Sir:--

This is an application for the dismissal of twenty indictments found in October 1893 against the defendant above named charging him with aiding and abetting in a number of cases of false registration from the premises known as No. 203 Bowery.

I have sent letters to the witnesses whose names appear on the back of the indictments and all have been returned by the Post Office as "not found". A copy of the minutes of the Grand Jury has been made, and does not, in my judgment, contain any evidence that would warrant placing the defendant upon trial. And I have consulted with Assistant District Attorney Lindsay, who drew the indictments and had charge of the Grand Jury matters at the time of their being found, and am informed by him that he believes that there is no evidence against the defendant; that the bills were ordered upon the assumption that some of the men registered would vote upon election day; that then an arrest would be made and an endeavor made to connect the defendant Buckley with the alleged false registration, but that this plan failed because none of those registered from the premises in question appeared to vote.

I therefore respectfully report that a trial upon any of these indictments would result, in my opinion, in an acquittal, and can see nothing which the District Attorney could fairly urge in opposition to the motion to dismiss, and consequently recommend that the indictments be dismissed.
