and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

One black silk dress: One black cashmere dress and One brown dress of the value together of One Hundred dollars - also One Broche Shawl of the value of thirty dollars - in all of the value of One Hundred and thirty dollars the property of this deponent and her husband John and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by Harry Gardner

for the reasons following, to wit:

That about the hour of 8 O'clock P.M. of the day aforesaid the said window of said basement was closed ^{and securely fastened} and the property hereinbefore described was contained therein; and that about the hour of 10.30 O'clock of the same night this deponent found the catch on said window unfastened and the said property taken therefrom. That deponent several times thereafter said that she would be willing to pay for the same tickets re-0917

-presenting the said stolen property, and that on the evening of the 21st day of January 1883, the said defendant called on the deponent at her said residence and asked deponent what she would be willing to pay for the pawn tickets and deponent informed him, the defendant, that she would pay ten dollars for them, whereupon he agreed to get the said tickets and bring them to this deponent. That on the evening of the 24th day of January 1883 the said defendant again called on deponent and informed her that he had seen one George Rogers trying to sell the pawn tickets representing the deponents said stolen property to a peddler, and that he, said Rogers, wanted fifteen dollars for them, and that he, said defendant, would try and get them from Rogers.

That on the 25th day of January 1883 the said defendant accompanied this deponent to the pawn establishment of one Ferguson at premises No. 526 1/2 Broome Street and he said to the pawnbroker that he had pawned with him on the 8th instant a black Cadmore dress, in a false name, while he was drunk, and that he had lost the pawn ticket representing the same - that this deponent was his mother who owned the said dress and wished to redeem the same whereupon the said pawnbroker gave deponent

Key Gardner being duly examined before the undersigned, according to law, on the annexed charge: and being informed that it is his right to make a statement in relation to the charge against him; that the statement is designed to enable him if he see fit to answer the charge and explain the facts alleged against him that he is at liberty to waive making a statement, and that his waiver cannot be used against him on the trial.

Question What is your name?

Answer. Key Gardner

Question. How old are you?

Answer. 19 years.

Question. Where were you born?

Answer. London

Question. Where do you live, and how long have you resided there?

Answer. 16 1/2 Downing Street: about a week

Question. What is your business or profession?

Answer. Press-finisher

Question. Give any explanation you may think proper of the circumstances appearing in the testimony against you, and state any facts which you think will tend to your exculpation?

Answer. When I went into her place first I had a glass of beer in and I said to her, "did you find your goods yet," & she said "no" and would give a suitable reward to any person who would get them. I asked if she suspected any one & she said "no" & I said while I'm loafing if you come in any way I will let you know - we made the bargain together and I looked around. On Tuesday night George Rogers told me he had two tickets and I told Mrs Duffy of it. She said "all right". I then saw the tickets and read what was on them and told Mrs Duffy that the only way to get them was to try and put a stop ticket to them as she wanted to keep every thing quiet - I went to the printers with Mrs Duffy and put a stop ticket to the dress - He then went by the said Matt Grace. and pawned the same and received one hundred dollars and a ticket. which money this deponent gave to said Matt Grace and said Grace gave this deponent fifteen dollars of said money.

That said Grace saw this deponent upon the same evening that he pawned the watch and urged him to see Archie Adams, right away, and get the watch back ^{for} one James Grimes, from whom he had borrowed the same. That on the following day whilst deponent was waiting in

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Otto Grotzke

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse of the CRIME OF "Shooting at another with intent to kill," committed as follows:

The said

Otto Grotzke

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the twelfth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty two with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of Henry Koch in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and to, at and against him the said Henry Koch a certain pistol then and there loaded and charged with gunpowder and one lead bullet, which the said Otto Grotzke in his right hand then and there had and held the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously, did then and there shoot off and discharge, with intent him the said

Henry Koch

thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Otto Grotzke

of the Crime of Shooting and Discharging off a pistol at another, without justifiable or excusable cause, with intent to injure such other, committed as follows:

The said

afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said

then and there being, wilfully and feloniously did make an assault and to, at and against him the said Henry

a certain pistol then and there loaded and charged with gunpowder and one lead bullet, which he the said

in his right hand, then and there had and held, wilfully and feloniously, and without justifiable or excusable cause, did then and there shoot off and discharge, with intent, thereby him the said

wilfully and feloniously, then and there to injure, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

JOHN McKEON, District Attorney,
