City & County of New York ss:

Bernard McCherry, being duly sworn says I reside at 431 West 54th Street, in the City of New York, and was the complainant against the above named Thomas Haggerty before Police Justice Duffey in the Yorkville Police Court on February 8, 1887. I have no inclination to further press the charge of threatening to assault me, and I believe that the defendant has already ^{suffered} sufficient for his conduct. He did not strike me, but simply pulled a pistol out of his pocket, and in an altercation threatened to shoot. I did not believe he intended to do so, but he said so perhaps to deter me from throwing at him a large paving stone which I had placed upon my cart so as to have it handy in case it became necessary to use it.

Haggerty was very much under the influence of liquor at the time we had our dispute which arose out of a question as to whether he or I should have our coal carts loaded first

I have known him for two years, and know him to have always enjoyed the reputation of an honest, hard working man. He, with a brother, supports his widowed mother.

He has been imprisoned since February 8th 1887, and I should be glad to see him discharged.

of New York, }

James Dunn
 of No. 642 Tenth Avenue Street, aged 42 years, occupation Oil dealer being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 31 day of January 188*7* at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

Good and lawful money consisting of divers bills of divers denominations of the value of Seventy five dollars

$75

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent
 has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by John B. Hampton (now here) colored and another person whose name is unknown Deponent says that he saw an advertisement in the New York Herald that horses were for sale at Shanley's Glass Company's stable
 at No 233 West 33^d Street in said City and went there to purchase a horse and on entering said stable said Hampton accosted him and said Good Day, that deponent replied Good Day in return and asked said Hampton if he had any horses for sale and he said Hampton replied "Yes" we have three left, but one of them is partly cold the large horse. That deponent replied that he did not need a large horse. That said Hampton replied if that is the case I will show you the horses and said Hampton took one of the horses from a stall in said stable and deponent asked said Hampton the price of said horse and he replied $115.00. That deponent stated to said Hampton that he was only going to pay $75.00 and said Hampton replied that was less than he was authorized to sell him for. That deponent looked examined said horse and said Hampton informed him said deponent that said horse was sound kind and true and deponent asked said Hampton if he would give ten days trial and said Hampton replied "Yes" to a responsible party and deponent replied that he would refer them to the Standard Oil Company and said if the horse don't suit deponent would require the return of said $75.00 and said Hampton replied All right. and sent a boy after his father as he said Hampton called him and immediately said unknown person came in the stable and said Hampton informed said deponent that deponent offered $75.00 for the horse and said unknown person took said money and informed deponent that he would return the same if the horse did not suit and said unknown person informed said Hampton to take said horse and he turned to the back of deponent's wagon which he said Hampton did and deponent took him to the stable in a yard in West 46th Street in said City. Deponent says at the time said horse was represented to be sound kind and true as aforesaid the said horse was unsound unkind and untrue and was utterly worthless and was known by said Hampton and said unknown person to be. That said defendant and said unknown person made such false representations wilfully and designedly to the deponent and with intent to cheat and defraud deponent. Therefore deponent charges said Hampton with feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said property as aforesaid in

Tried Monday March 7th, 1887

A P P E A R A N C E S.

Assistant District Attorney Amborse H. Purdy, for the People;
Charles Steckler Esq. for the defence.

-----000-----

PARTICK J. GEOGHAN, being duly sworn, testified that he resided at present, in the tombs. On the 31st day of December last, he was standing in East 13th Street, No. 642 about half past eight in the evening, when a man by the name of McGuire drove up in front of that house and said
"Hello Jack, are you working" - and says to him come and take a ride." He, the witness, went over to the wagon and

McGuire drove off taking him into the wagon. He, the witness, could not exactly say through what streets they passed but they drove down town to the First Ward and then up town again and got up town to about 18th Street about quarter to 12. It was raining somewhat at the time, and he got the benefit of it. When they got up town as far as 16th Street it was 12 o'clock and McGuire drove up First Avenue and they pulled up at Gardner's stable - Dennis Gardner. Gardner was standing in front of the stable and Jack asked him would he give him a hand in taking the trunks off the wagon. They then took the trunks off the wagon and McGuire said to Gardner "Let me take them in your stable." McGuire then went away and remained away about 20 minutes and he, the witness, remained there in front of the stable door. The defendant then came along - he came down out of his house, the house being in the rear, and he wanted to know what the noise was about and had a stable-lamp in his hand. McGuire as soon as he opened the door put his foot in it and he said "I got things here I don't want to get them wet. The defendant then said "You cannot bring them in here," and McGuire said, "I will bring them in here or I will punch you in the nose;" he pushed this man and he said that and he told me to take the things in there.

0904

He, the witness, had never been in States Prison.

-----000-----

DENNIS GARDNER, of No. 642 10th. Street, being duly sworn testified that he knew the defendant about three months and once lived in the same house with him about a month ago, a week before the defendant's arrest. He, the witness, was working in a livery stable in 16th. Street, No. 642 East; these fellows came along with a wagon while he was washing off a cab and they hollered in "Are you in there?" and they also said, "Come out and give me a hand with a trunk." They said, "here is a trunk we will leave it here out of the rain." The witness said "You got a nerve." Afterwards he, the witness, and the parties went off to have a drink and they left the trunk in the stable. He, the witness, pleaded guilty to the charge of grand larceny and he was taken to the tombs, and in the tombs the other defendants told him to keep his mouth shut and that they "couldn't do nothing" to him.

-----000-----

Under cross examination the witness testified that he lived in the same house with the defendant, in his room in a rear building.

-----000-----

WILLIAM F. HAGGERTY, a witness called for the people being duly sworn, testified that he was in the express ~~business and that on~~ the 31st of December last he owned an express wagon and he saw it the last time about half past six, and at that time there were several packages in the wagon. He, the witness, was not driving the wagon at the time, but his driver whose name was ^{Kelley} ~~Benny~~. The driver is not in court. When he, the witness, saw the wagon last those two trunks in question were not in the wagon and he, the witness, heard about the wagon being picked up in 15th Street by the police. The driver of the wagon was out of town and had been discharged by the witness. The value of the horse and wagon was between 4 to 5 hundred dollars.

-----000-----

Under cross examination, the witness testified that a policeman found a horse and wagon and brought it back.

-----000-----

0906

JAMES MCGUIRE, a witness called for the people, being duly sworn, testified that he was a headquarter detective and as such had charge of the larceny. He first heard of the larceny on New Years day, and he thereupon made inquiries in the neighborhood in which the wagon was found, and he arrested Dennis Gardner, John Hughes, Patrick Geoghan and Michael Harican. Dennis Gardner and Geoghan were committed to three thousand dollars bail. Harican was also arrested and committed and put under three thousand dollars bail and John Hughes died before we could bring him in. The property was found at Michael Harican's dwelling. The property was identified by C. S. ^{Harican} ~~Benny~~.

-----000-----

Under cross examination the witness testified that the defendant denied having received the goods at first and denied that he knew the men that brought it there. The witness also testified that he struck the prisoner because he was insolent and made threats against him.

-----000-----

CHARLES S. BARNARD, a witness called for the people being duly sworn, testified, that he was a doctor and his place of business was at 426 Court Street, Brooklyn.

On the day in question, in the month of December, he had two trunks and some wearing apparel and he packed them up at 145 East 15th. Street. He, the witness, was sick. And he was going to the Gedney house at the corner of 40th . Street and Broadway and went to bed and sent word down to the clerk to send for his trunks. That is all he, the witness, knew about it. He, the witness, had all his wearing apparel in the trunks which he packed up in 15th. Street before he left and he told the clerk in the Gedney House to receive them when they arrived. He, the witness, afterwards identified his property in a pawnshop in company with a man named Haggerty who was an expressman.

-----000-----

OWEN MULLREADY, called as a witness for the defence, testified, that he lived at No. 530 East 13th. Street. and was in the carting business and owned considerable property. He testified that he knew the defendant about 15 years, during which time he lived in that neighborhood and the prisoner's character was good and he never heard a word said against his character in his life.

-----000-----

Under cross examination he testified that he did not see the prisoner on or about the 31st. of December, 1886, but did see him in January, 1887, but not every day.

-----000-----

JAMES MADDEN, a witness called for the defence, also testified that he lived at No. 513 East 13th. Street. And that he knew the prisoner and that his character was good and that he, the prisoner, worked every day at the peddling business.

-----000-----

HENRY MARCUS, called for the defence, being duly sworn, testified that he was in the shoe business on First Avenue and that he knew the defendant for about 10 years and that the defendant's character was good.

-----000-----

0909

8

LOUIS STRAUSS, called for the defence, being duly sworn, testified that he was a butcher doing business at 516 East 13th. Street, and that he knew the prisoner and that the ~~business~~ ^{prisoner's} character was good and that he was a hard working young man.

-----000-----

MICHAEL HARRIGAN, the defendant, being duly sworn, testified that he was 26 years of age and that he never was arrested in his life, and that he lived at the time of his arrest at No. 642 East 16th. Street, in the rear house, with his two brothers and two sisters. On the night of the 31st of December as he was going to bed he heard a noise in his yard and he thought somebody was going into his stable or cellar and so he, the witness, opened a window and saw two young men, Hughes and Geoghan, having two trunks and just as he, the witness, opened the door, one of them put his foot between the door and held it there and said, "It is raining, and I don't want to let this stuff get wet. He, the witness, said, "What have you got there - you cannot get that into my place," And then one of them said, "if you don't, I will smash you in the nose, " and he yanked them into his entry and they broke the trunks open and Geoghan carted away the stuff and came back again and then they said to the witness, "Don't you say anything about this or I will break your head." He, the witness, didn't know what to do with the trunk and he was scared. The trunks were in his way and the children played with the papers and things that were in them and they were burned up and the trunk was broken open and the papers were all over the entry. He, the prisoner, did not take the papers himself but the children used them up; and his two sisters keep house for him. He, the prisoner, knew Gardner, but the other two who were with Gardner he had never seen.

-----000-----

Under cross examination, he testified that he did not recollect that Geoghan said to him, "Jesus Christ, are we going to get anything out of this." He, the witness, told the officers that he knew nothing about it because he was afraid, and, he was afraid to say anything about it all along because there is a bad gang around there and he was afraid of his life and therefore did not mention anything about the affair. He, the witness, did not examine the papers in the trunk and would not know a promissory note if he saw one. He, the prisoner, could not read.
