Sir,

Application is herewith respectfully made to have complaint withdrawn in above case. In support of which I have the honor to submit a statement in writing made by Edward E. Britton the complainant who is a son of the late Winchester Britton formerly District attorney of Kings County in this state, together with affidavits of Peter Kellar the boy's uncle and Jacob Morlath as to character, both of whom upon me are well known to Sergeant Reilly of your office and to whom they beg leave to refer in this matter, and also a statement of Mr Sanford, the Superintendent of the American Dist. Tel. Co where the defendant has been employed. No indictment has yet been found, and it would seem that this boy who is quite young, was led by an older and vicious boy employed in the same office

Dear Sir,

I beg to state that in my opinion, the Am. Dist. Mess. boy Keller, who abstracted $28. from a letter entrusted by me to him, is not materially vicious, and that he was led into wrong doing by the other boy. I was told by the Manager of the Messenger office that Keller had always been considered as highly trustworthy. If I did not believe thus, I should consider it a duty to press the charge against Keller, but in view of all the circumstances, I am quite satisfied, personally, to let the matter drop. The Messenger Co. had signified their intention of refunding to me the money lost, but the parents of Keller, without solicitation on my part, brought to me the sum stolen.

Yours very Truly
