I have made a very careful examination of the witnesses in this case. There was no one present at the time of the killing & no dying declaration made. I do not think a verdict for any other crime than for manslaughter 1st degree could be obtained upon a trial. There is no evidence of antecedent threats or quarrels between the defendant & deceased. The defendant was once surrounded by assistance for his wife and gave himself up to the police. I believe satisfied myself that a careful review of the whole case shows that it would be proper to accept a plea of manslaughter in its 1st degree.

IN THE CORONER'S COURT OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

INQUEST IN THE MATTER OF THE : BEFORE
DEATH OF : HON. FERDINAND LEVY, Coroner, JOHANNA ST CLARE. : AND A JURY.

New York, Friday, January 10th, 1890.

For Christopher St Clare, the prisoner, appeared MR. G. E. WESTERFIELD & MR. A. H. PURDY, both of 280 Broadway.

THE CORONER: Gentlemen this is the case of Johanna St Clare, 40 years of age at the time of her death, born in Ireland, found at Chambers Street Hospital. Death is said to have occurred from a stab wound of the abdomen, inflicted by her husband, Christopher St Clare, about 1.30 A.M., December 22nd, 1889, at 34 Rector Street.

PETER J. TUCKER, a police officer, sworn and examined.

BY THE CORONER:

Q. To what Precinct are you attached? A. The 2nd Precinct.

Q. Tell the Jury all you know of this case? A. All I know about the case is that I was called on to arrest the prisoner.

Q. You didn't see the stabbing? A. No, sir; I don't know anything about that, only he admitted that he done the stabbing and he said he was shaking the coal down in the stove with a knife and they had some words and that she was standing behind him kind of growling with him and that he gave her a shove away and accidentally cut the woman. Her statement was that she was lying on the lounge. When I went into the house----

Q. (Interposing) Never mind that. You have told us what he told you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now you went into the house, and what then? A. Well, I went into the house and that is the statement he made to me.

Q. That is all you know of the case? A. Well, there is her statement. When I went in she says to him "Now you've done it." I asked her who cut her and she said her husband cut her. That is all I know about it.

MRS. ANNIE WILSON, sworn and examined.

BY THE CORONER:

Q. Where do you live? A. At 34 Rector Street. I live on the same floor that the St Clare's did.

Q. What time did you go in the room? A. About one o'clock in the morning.

Q. What did you see in the room? A. I saw Mrs. St Clare laying beside the lounge on the floor.

Q. And did you ask the prisoner how she came in that condition

A. No, as I was in the act of going in the door I heard him say "I have stabbed her; I am going to give myself up."

Q. Did he say he stabbed her by mistake or accident? A. No, he didn't say at the time.

Q. Is that all you know of the case? A. That is all. I spoke to Mrs. St Clare and she told me that she was lying on the lounge and he took a knife to rake the fire with and he said "I am going to stab you," and she said she thought he didn't mean it or if she had thought so she would have tried to get away.

Q. Were those people in the habit of quarreling? A. No, I have never known them to quarrel.

0338

Q. Was he under the influence of liquor that night by the way he acted? A. I couldn't say.

PATRICK BRADY, a police officer, sworn and examined.

BY THE CORONER:

Q. To what precinct are you attached? A. The 2nd Precinct.

Q. What do you know of this case? A. The same as officer Tucker, only she made a statement. That is all I seen different.

Q. To whom? A. To Officer Tucker and I and Mrs. Wilson.

Q. Do you know anything different from what officer Tucker has testified to? A. No, sir.

Q. You corroborate the testimony of officer Tucker? A. Yes, sir.

The Coroner here charged the Jury.

0339

Q. Was he under the influence of liquor that night by the way he acted? A. I couldn't say.

PATRICK BRADY, a police officer, sworn and examined.

I was standing on the corner of Rector and Washington Street
and I heard a rap which is intended for calling assistance
I ran towards the place where the sound came from and I saw Officer William Moody and the defendants on Rector Street near West Street. Moody told me that the defendants had stabbed his wife. I immediately rapped for Officer Tucker and he responded and Tucker and myself took the defendants to premises 34 Rector Street
on the second floor. We found Johanna St. Clair lying on the floor; Annie Wilson was attending to Johanna. I saw blood on the floor and she was covered with a blanket. I asked her

who cut her and she replied
pointing at the defendant
"there is the man, there" I asked her why the defendant stabbed and she replied "We had some words" I asked her what were the words
but she refused to tell me.
She Johanna, told me she was lying on the lounge and he came out of the room to fix
the fire and they had some words and he told her he would stab her and she told him to do it. She not thinking that he would and he, defendant then went over and stabbed her while she was lying on the lounge.

Wm A. Conway, M.D., being sworn says, I made an autopsy on the body of Catherine Sinclair with the following results,

An external view of the body showed a stab wound on the abdomen about an inch & a half in length which had been extended by the surgeons in the Hospital while performing the operation of laparotomy. The extended wound had inserted into it two drainage tubes evidently intended to drain off the fluid from the abdomen.

On opening the cavity of the abdomen there was found a quantity of clotted blood which had accumulated therein and the intestines were found to have been pierced in several places by a sharp instrument shaped like a large knife. The liver was fatty, kidneys normal, heart normal, lungs slightly redematous but otherwise normal.

The brain was normal and the body well nourished with a large deposition of adipose tissue all over (In other words deceased was a very healthy woman although very fat)

In my opinion the cause of death was shock from hemorrhage caused by a stab wound of the abdomen

Dear Sir

I have been very unfortunate in my efforts to find you at home. My object in wishing to see you, being in behalf of a young man Charles Somerset whom I visited at the Tomb, he has told me
of his theft and of the breach of trust - he has committed against you, and 0374

I think that - he is thoroughly penitent. - Besides the stealing he is deeply sorry to have abused the confidence you placed in him. He informs me that - he is an Englishman and that - his home influence has been good. If you could find it in your judgment - to forgive him this first offense I think it would make a lasting impression upon him.

Respected Sir

I trust you will excuse the liberty I take in addressing this appeal to you, but since I have had time to reflect on my present position, my conscience directs that I should make an apology for committing such a mean & contemptible breach of trust, as my indiscretion has led me to do, & to beg of you for God's sake, (if your conscience will permit) to be as lenient with me, as you possibly can. I have no sympathy for myself, although I am of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE ON SUNDAY, committed as follows:

The said

Frank Swan

twenty-fourth late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the June day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one

Francis P. Colligan

and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said

Frank Swan

of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said

Frank Swan

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure, and suffer and permit, to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
