That

George H. Field

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid on the twenty first day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~seventy~~ eighty one, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one Nathaniel Waterbury did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to the said Nathaniel Waterbury that, a certain instrument and writing, to wit, an order for the payment of money, of the kind known as a check, which the said George H. Field then and there presented and delivered to the said Nathaniel Waterbury and which said check is in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

No 167 New York May 19. 1881
Market National Bank
Pay to the order of Geo. H. Field one hundred & fifteen 74/100 — Two Dollars $ 115 72/100 Jas. H. Whittemore was a good and valid order for the payment of one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy two cents in money, and of the value of one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy two cents; and that a sum of one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy two cents in money belonging to the said James H. Whittemore was then in the possession of the Market National Bank, and that said sum of money was then payable and could be paid by the said Market National Bank on the credit and account of the said James H. Whittemore whenever an order in writing, signed by the said James H. Whittemore authorizing the said Market National Bank to make such payment should be presented at the place of business of the said Market National Bank and that a certain check purporting to be, in the proper handwriting of said James H. Whittemore and which said check was addressed to the said Market National Bank at the place of business of the said Market National Bank at the City of New York and which said check purported to be an order upon the said to pay to the said George H. Field and to any endorsee of the said George H. Field and of the said check the sum of one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy two cents in money, was a valuable security, to wit, an order for the payment of one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy two cents in money, and of the value of one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy two cents

And the said Nathaniel Waterbury then and there believing the said false pretences and representations.

so made as aforesaid by the said George H. Field and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said

George H. Field a certain sum of money to wit the sum of twenty dollars in money and of the value of twenty dollars

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Nathaniel Waterbury and the said George H. Field did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said sum of money to wit the sum of twenty dollars in money and of the value of twenty dollars

of the said Nathaniel Waterbury

of the said Nathaniel Waterbury by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said Nathaniel Waterbury of the same.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said check which the said George H. Field then and there presented and delivered to the said Nathaniel Waterbury was not a good and valid order for the payment of one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy two cents in money, nor was the same a good and valid order for the payment of any sum of money whatever.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, there was not then and there the sum of one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy two cents in money belonging to the said James H. Whittemore in the possession of the said Market National Bank nor was there then and there any sum of money whatsoever belonging to the said James H. Whittemore in the possession of said Market National Bank

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the said sum of money was not then payable and could not be paid by said Market National Bank on the credit and account of the said James H. Whittemore whenever an order in writing signed by the said James H. Whittemore authorizing such payment to be made should be presented at the place of business of the said Market National Bank, nor would the said Market National Bank pay any sum of money whatsoever upon such order so signed by the said James H. Whittemore as aforesaid.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said check purporting to be in the proper handwriting of the said James H. Whittemore was not an order to pay to the said George H. Field or any endorsee of the said George H. Field or of the said check the sum of one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy two cents in money, nor was the same a valuable security, of the value of one hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy two cents in money, nor was it of any value whatever;

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said George H. Field to the said Nathaniel Waterbury was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said George H. Field well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Nathaniel Waterbury to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said George H. Field by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Nathaniel Waterbury a certain sum of money, to wit, the sum of Twenty dollars in money, and of the value of Twenty dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of the said Nathaniel Waterbury with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud him of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

of No. 2015 Third Avenue ~~Street~~, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that the premises No. 2015 Third Avenue

~~Street~~, 12th Ward, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a frame Building and which was occupied by deponent as a Dwelling House and Saloon

were BURGLARIOUSLY

and entered by means of forcibly opening the shutter of a front window of the second floor by said premises, about the hour of 10 o'clock on the night of the 30th day of May 1880 and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Two feather pillows and two pillow cases and two pillow shams, one bed sheet and one bed quilt, said property being in all of the value of Seventy-five dollars the property of deponent and her husband Guy C. Glad, and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by John Fisher and James Hickey, both now here, for the reasons following, to wit;

That deponent closed and fastened the shutter of said window and at the time aforesaid was sitting in a room adjoining deponent's bed-room. That deponent heard a noise on the shed, and heard a woman's voice say "Be quiet before they catch you." That deponent then went into the bed room and saw a man standing on the shed and leaning through said window into the bed-room and in the act of taking said property from the bed in said room.

 That about fifteen minutes thereafter, one of said pillows was found in a room in the house adjoining defendants said premises in a room in which were then the said defendants, and said pillow was found under the head of the defendant Hickey who was lying apparently asleep on the floor, as deponent is informed by her husband and officer Levy then present.
