The Honorable William J. Gaynor,
Mayor of The City of New York.

Dear Sir:-

I hereby respectfully resign my office of Member of the Board of Education (and, ex-officio, Trustee of the Normal College).

This attractive position I have held for more than four years, and, being greatly interested in the work, I have devoted to it more time than I could well afford. Now, however, I find myself quite unable to spare, from the practice of my profession, sufficient time for the proper performance of the unsalaried duties.

I was appointed and reappointed from the Borough of The Bronx, where I have long resided.

It gives me pleasure to congratulate you and the City upon the auspicious commencement of your administration, evidenced by your admirable appointments; and I perceive in your announced policies the true ring of statesmanship.

I have been long a careful observer of our City's affairs, and something of the difficulties of your office were impressed upon me in the years in which I was private secretary to Mayor Hewitt, whom I greatly admired and whose memory I venerate,--and whose gravely considered opinion, in respect to personal taxes, was on similar lines with your own.

Not since Mr. Hewitt's term has the standard of the Mayoralty been so elevated.

Yours very respectfully,

Henry H. Sherman.

Honorable William J. Gaynor,
Mayor of the City of New York,
City Hall, New York City.

Dear Sir:

At a meeting of the Public School Janitors' Association on April 30, of this year, I made some informal remarks, in the course of which I referred in a jocular and ill-considered manner to certain rumors that some of the janitors had paid money in connection with their appointments.

I had then and have now no knowledge that any such payments were ever made. I did not intend that my word would carry the meaning which I now see may be justly attached to them. I am, and have been all my life a workingman, without any advantage. In view of these facts, I hope I may be pardoned for having used these unfortunate expressions at this meeting. I assure you that it was not any intention to approve any practice of paying for an appointment by any public school janitor or any one else.

I realize also that any error has proven embarrassing to the Board of Education of which I am a member. I was appointed to that Board in December, 1908; and have always tried to do my full duty there. I believe that the other members of the Board will bear me out in this.

The appointment was the greatest honor of my life, and I was very proud of it on my account and on account of my family, to think that I had gotten such a high honor by my own efforts from my early beginnings. But I do not want to embarrass the Board; and I realize and regret my mistake.

So I respectfully tender herewith my resignation as a member of the Board of Education to take effect immediately.

Respectfully,

James P. Holland
