The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

William Mahoney and Peter Derkin of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said William Mahoney and

Peter Derkin

late of the City and County of New York, on the twenty seventh day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty six, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms feloniously made an assault in and upon one Thomas Drury

New York, and as such patrolman, being then and there engaged in the lawful apprehension of one John Haley whose real name is to the Grand Jury aforesaid in:

his name, for an assault and the said William Mahoney, and Peter Derkin him, the said Thomas Drury

then and there feloniously did beat, strike, wound and otherwise ill-treat, with intent then and there to prevent and resist the lawful apprehension of the said John Haley, as aforesaid, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Testimony in the case of Peter Jenkins

filed April 1884.

47
 The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I Peter Terkin } Before Recorder Smyth. May 7, 1882. jointly indicted with W^m. Mahoney for assault in the second degree.

Thomas Heriry sworn. I am an officer of the 23 precinct; on the 23^d of April I had a prisoner whom I was taking to the station house. I don't know his name. I arrested him for disorderly conduct, for assaulting a young lady at 103^d st. and First Avenue 1/4 past 8 in the evening. At 99th st. W^m Mahoney stepped out of a vacant lot and crossed the Avenue. He told me to let go of the fellow I had and at the same time he drew his hand and struck me and knocked off my hat; the prisoner I had then entangled with me and caught hold of my club. After struggling some time with the club us three fell off the sidewalk on the Avenue, and when I fell Terkin kicked me in the side. As soon as I got my club loose I rapped for assistance; then the man I had in custody and Mahoney and Terkin got away; they ran into the lot again. Then I went back up the Avenue and called on a citizen and told him what had happened to me. He came down with me and on the way down those two men jumped out of the lot again. I called upon the citizen to stop Mahoney and followed Derkin and caught him and the citizen got hold of Mahoney; we took them to the station house. He came out of the lot right after Mahoney; he followed right up. Cross Examined. How many people were there? There was not a soul on the Avenue but us four. I saw the prisoner that evening at half past six; that is the first time I saw him. Did you make any stop between 103 and 99th St.? No sir. The lot was on the west side of First Avenue. I said nothing until I was struck by Mahoney. At that time Derkin was as far Mahoney as I am from you. Mahoney hit me on the forehead with his shut fist. Did it knock you down? No sir. Mahoney and the prisoner whom I had got hold of my club and then we fell to the ground. The prisoner Derkin did not take hold of the club at all. After that I fell down, I fell against Derkin and then he kicked me. When Mahoney had hold of my club I did not strike at Derkin. When I was on the ground he kicked me. Derkin and Mahoney must have known the prisoner whom I arrested, but I don't positively know it.

0345

Peter Durkin sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am going on 15 years. I live in 103 street between First and Second Aves. I worked last winter at bricklaying. It was about 6 1/2 o'clock when the officer arrested us. I was not doing any thing to him. I was going home. I saw nobody in custody of the officer. There was nobody that I was acquainted with arrested by the officer at the time. I did not hit or kick him. I did not knock against him. I had no trouble with him at all. I know Mahoney; we were together that night and this officer ran over and grabbed us. Mahoney did nothing either; the officer was not lying on the street, he was standing up. Nobody tried to take his club. I was arrested between 103 and 104th sts. I did not see the officer until he got hold of me. I did not run away. Cross Examined: I was before Justice Wilde. I held the pen while a mark was made on the paper. I stated ^{on the stand} that I was a bricklayer and that I worked last winter. I said to the Justice that I had no business. Were you working at the time you gave that answer - you said you had no business? Akin: I have not any business now.

Mary Derkine sworn. I live at 103rd Street.
 The prisoner is my boy; he is a kind of a simpleton and has always been.
 John Derkine sworn. I am the father of the prisoner; he has been simple ever since he had the measles. Put twelve cents in that boy's hand and I will bet he don't count it correctly. I am a bricklayer. How old is he? He will be 15 years old the 15th of August.
 What does he do for a living? He was working last summer at my own business, learning the brick trade. How long did he work for you? He worked pretty near all summer with me. Did you give him any wages?
 Yes sir, I gave him a dollar a day.
 He knew how to make bricks? I could hardly get him to pick it up; he was stupid.
 I could not get him to lay down his mind to it. He did for a time pick up brick, shovel sand and do something around the building. He can speak and chide himself; he does not talk sensibly. He has never been locked up since he was a boy before this; he is big enough to know the difference between right and wrong. I should think he ought to know that.
 The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree. He was sent to the penitentiary for three months.

The People
 vs
 August Markowsky } Court of General Sessions Part 7th Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree Before Recorder Smythe May 6th 1884 John Zsemlik sworn. I am a laborer; on the 25th of April last I was stopping at Castle Garden in this city and on that evening was in a hotel, ^{near} there getting a drink. I had two two dollar bills, a twenty dollar bill and a steamer passage ticket to Bremen worth seventeen dollars. They were in a pocketbook which I had in my hand as I paid five cents for the beer; it was half past eight in the evening. I saw the prisoner there. There were two or three others there; the prisoner snatched the pocketbook out of my hand and went out. I saw him again the next day; he was near Castle Garden. I went to him and asked him to give me the money back and he hit me twice. Then I went to a policeman and told him and he arrested the prisoner. As he was in custody of the policeman he offered me forty dollars and a passage ticket if I would not make complainant against him, if I would let him go. I did not make any agreement with him and he was taken to the police station. Cross Examined. Some people were sitting and some standing in the saloon at the time. I was in the act of putting the pocket book back in my pocket when the prisoner snatched it out of my hand. Peter Groden sworn. I am an officer of the 26th precinct. I arrested the prisoner on the morning of the 26th of April in Carlisle St.; he was asleep in a liquor store; the complainant told me of his loss in Castle Garden. I brought the prisoner face to face with him and he identified him as the man who had taken his money. The prisoner said if he could get away he would give him the money and the ticket back if he had an opportunity to go down town somewhere. This conversation took place on the way to the Tombs Police Court. I told the prisoner that he had a right to give this man his money and his ticket back to go to Europe. He had not told me before that he had not the complainant's money. I arrested him in a liquor store. I did not tell him what I arrested him for till he saw the complainant. Then he said he was innocent of the charge.

August Markowsky, sworn and examined, in his own behalf, testified I am a locksmith and live at 122 Washington St. I remember the day that officer Groden arrested me and remember the evening previous. I was down at 122 Washington St. in Reinhart's hotel that evening. I saw the complainant in the place that evening but did not talk to him. I did not snatch his pocket book containing money and a passage ticket from him. I did not, as officer Groden says, offer him forty dollars and the ticket back if he would let me go. There were in the place two gentlemen and a couple of witnesses, the brothers Laufer, who are in Court. Cross Examined. I have never had any other name than Markowsky. I was arrested once before by officer Groden, but was never in the State Prison or penitentiary. I was locked up at the City hall and let go. I am seven or eight years in this Country. I worked at 122 Nassau St. a restaurant four or five months washing dishes. I worked for Mr. Budzynski of 122 Washington St. driving an express wagon about four or five months. I stopped working for him last Saturday week. His place of business is corner of Marlisk & Washington St. Nathan Laufer sworn. I was present in the hotel the evening the complainant says he lost his pocket book. I know the prisoner. My brother and several more gentlemen were sitting at the table the complainant was intoxicated, he came in there and asked for beer; he took something out of his pocket at the bar and went right out; he came

0371

that evening but did not talk to him. I did not snatch his pocket book containing money and a passage ticket from him. I did not, as officer Groden says, offer him forty dollars and the ticket back if he would let me go. There were in the place two gentlemen and a couple of witnesses, the brothers Laufer, who are in Court. Cross Examined. I have never had any other name than Markowsky. I was arrested once before by officer Groden, but was never in the State prison or penitentiary. I was locked up at the City hall and let go. I am seven or eight years in this country. I worked at 122 Nassau St. a restaurant four or five months washing dishes. I worked for Mr. Budzynski of 122 Washington St. driving an express wagon about four or five months. I stopped working for him last Saturday week. His place of business is corner of Marlick & Washington St. Nathan Laufer sworn. I was present in the hotel the evening the complainant says he lost his pocket book. I know the prisoner. My brother and several more gentlemen were sitting at the table the complainant was intoxicated, he came in there and asked for beer; he took something out of his pocket at the bar and went right out; he came in about five or eight minutes afterwards and said he lost his pocket book and asked the bar keeper if he left it there. The defendant was sitting at the table; he was not anywhere near the complainant. If he had examined that pocket book I would have seen it. I keep a provision store at 3 Washington St. Cross Examined. The complainant was staggering and crying that he lost his pocket book. Peter Groden recalled by the Court the complainant was sober when I saw him at 8 o'clock the next morning. I did not see him the night before. I don't know what his condition ^{was} was. Louis Langer sworn. I am a dealer in provisions and am a brother of Nathan Langer. I saw the complainant in the hotel the night he said he was robbed; he came in singing in the Hungarian language and everybody looked at him; he went to the bar, had a drink, paid for it, and walked out. About eight minutes after he came back and asked the bar tender if he left his pocket book there. The bar tender told him he put it in his pocket. I was sitting talking to the defendant at the time; he was not anywhere near the complainant and he did not go out after him. Once in a while the prisoner has brought prisoners to our shop.

0373

Mr Budzynski sworn and examined by Mr. Parris in rebuttal. I know the prisoner; my place of business is 122 Washington St. corner of Carlisle. He never worked for me and never lodged in my house. Cross Examined. I am in the banking and brokerage business and keep a hotel and express business. People say the prisoner is a thief. I sold a ticket to a man in March 1883 which the prisoner stole from him. Afterwards stopped the ticket at the General office and gave the man another ticket.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
